

The Price.

"They say that my boy is bad," she said to me.
A time old woman, thin and very frail:
"They caught him robbing railroad cars an' he
Must spend from five to seven years in jail.
His Pa and I had hoped so much for him.
He was so pretty as a little boy."
Her eyes with tears grew very wet an' dim.
"Now nothing that we've got can give us joy."
"What is it that you own?" I questioned then.
"The house we live in," slowly she replied.
"Two other houses worked and slaved for, when
The boy was but a youngster at my side.
Some bonds we took the time he went to war;
I've spent my strength against the want of age
We've always had some, and to struggle for—
Now shame and ruin smear the final page."
"His pa has been a steady goin' man,
Worked day and night and overtime as well;
He's lived and dreamed an' sweated to his plan
To own the house and profit should we sell.
He never drank or played much cards at night.
He's been a worker since our wedding day.
He's lived his life to what he knows is right.
And why should son of his now go astray?"
"I've rubbed my years away on scrubbing boards,
Washed floors for women that owned less than we,
An' while they played, the ladies an' the lads,
We smiled and dreamed of happiness to be."
"An' all this time where was the boy," said I.
"Out somewhere playing—like a rifle shot.
The thought went home—"My God," she gave a cry
"We paid too big a price for what we've got."

Cubs Defeat C. E. I.

The C.E.I. were easily defeated by the Cubs in last night's League Baseball, the score being 12-0. The losers were completely outclassed by the Cubs who had everything their own way. Harvey Thomas again donned the Institute uniform and despite his lack of practice, put up a good showing as catcher.

T. Manning pitched for the Cubs and Gosse replaced Clouston as Catcher. Messrs. Chesman and Hartnett controlled the game and the following was the result by innings:—

C.E.I. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 0
Cubs 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 12

Commander Fenn Dead.

It will be with feelings of great regret that all who came into contact with Lieut-Commander Fenn, R.N., during his stay here on H.M.S. Briton, will learn of his untimely death, which occurred on August 9th at Alston Court, Nayland, Suffolk. Whilst stationed on the Briton, Commander Fenn endeared himself to all, and this sudden end to what would have been a brilliant naval career will come as a great shock to all his friends.

S. S. Portia.

ENTERTAINMENT AND COLLECTION FOR PERMANENT MARINE DISASTER FUND.

On the last trip of the Portia the ship was delayed some seven hours landing freight at Grand Bank in Thursday, 18th inst., which afforded an excellent opportunity for quote a number of "round trippers" to stretch their legs ashore in the famous Bank fishery centre of the South West Coast.

After enjoying an hour or two rambling round the town and hand shakes with old and new friends, the tourists on their return to the steamer, hurriedly arranged an impromptu entertainment, which was held in the Music Room, producing some excellent talent and proving interesting and profitable to all concerned.

Songs were rendered by Misses M. Murray (Nurse), and G. Edwards; Messrs. W. Edwards, L. Kelly, J. A. Carmichael and F. J. LeGrow, M.H.A.; Recitations by Messrs. R. Manning and F. J. Shortall, whilst Miss M. McKay danced the Highland Fling in good style.

Short speeches were also made by Messrs. Manning and Carmichael, the latter suggesting that a collection should be taken up at the close for the Permanent Marine Disaster Fund. This was unanimously carried and the collection amounted to fifteen dollars.

On arrival at Harbor Breton several other tourists boarded the steamer and being held up for the night—bad weather—the entertainment was continued which added another seven dollars to the fund, and on arrival at Gaultois four dollars was contributed, making in all twenty-six dollars, which has been forwarded to the Evening Telegram for transmission to the proper quarters.

625,000 Bottles Sold in New York Alone in One Year

Biggest Thing Of Kind Ever Seen In That State, Says Big Wholesaler.

The fact that 625,000 bottles of Tanlac have been sold in the state of New York since its introduction there less than one year ago, is a big business item that will attract unusual attention throughout the entire East, for nothing like it has ever happened before. It breaks all records.

Mr. George B. Evans, manager of the Gibson-Snow Company, the well-known wholesale druggists, with branches in Albany, Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse, recently announced that the preparation was now selling in their trade territories alone at the phenomenal rate of approximately 500,000 bottles a year.

"If the present rate continues," said Mr. Evans, "this state alone will probably require considerably over 750,000 bottles a year. This is a tremendous figure, but I am really conservative in making this statement."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggist everywhere.

Teach me to bear the blow
Undaunted, unafraid;
Teach me to stumble low,
Nor call too soon for aid.
I would stand up to life
And all that it shall mean,
Courageously serene.

Tied Child to Track.

The shocking treatment of a child by its mother at Ste. Anne de la Pocatiere, Que., is reported in a despatch, which did not give any names, but likened the case to that of the Gagnon woman of Lethbridge, who is now serving life term in Kingston penitentiary for having caused the death of her step-daughter, Auror.

It appears that the woman recently took a violent dislike to her twelve-year-old daughter, and after inflicting cruel punishment upon the child, finally dragged her to the railway tracks of the Intercolonial line and bound her to the rails, leaving her to her fate.

The screams and sobs of the child attracted the attention of a farmer working in a field nearby, and he rescued her from her perilous position a few minutes before the train passed by.

When the townfolks learned of the action they reported the matter to the authorities, who investigated the case and found that the woman had displayed evidence of insanity of late, and in consequence of her violent treatment of her child, had her interned in an asylum.

Let us put a smile on your countenance. Try a bottle of Brick's Tasteless at Stafford's Drug Store. Price $1.00; postage 20c. extra.—apr26,tt

Stolen Car Returned.

A motor car which was stolen from outside a residence on Marze Street on Sunday night was returned yesterday morning, slightly damaged, and with an empty gas tank. The person or persons who borrowed the car are still unknown. This habit amongst certain joyriders in this town of taking motor cars and using them for several hours before returning them to their owners, is becoming too prevalent and strong steps should be taken to put a stop to it.
