MESSAGE FROM MR. LAURIER.

QUEBEC, March 6.—The results of the general elections are still too uncertain to venture a definite opinion. One thing, however, is made out beyond doubt, viz., the policy of the Government is doomed. Its fate is already sealed in so far as Ontario and Quebec are concerned. Let, therefore, Liberals continue the fight everywhere bravely and cheerfully.—Wilfrid Lauriers

NOVA SCOTIA. Missisquoi, Rimouski. Lunenburg, Northumberland. St. Johns City,

Liberals continue the fight everywhere bravely and cheerfully.—WILPRID LAURIER

NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, N. S., March 5.—Full returns at hand shew that the Tories have carried sixteen seats in Nova Scotia and the Liberals five. The Liberals redeemed Digby and Queen's, but lost Richmond, Lunenburg and one seat in Halifax. In Annapolis, Mills (Tory) has about 100 majority. In Antigonish Sir John Thompson has 234. In Cape Breton McKeen and McDougall (Tory) have 691 and 491 majority respectively. In Colchester Patterson (Tory) has 797. The Prohibitionist got less than 100 votes. In Cumberland Dickey has 750 majority; in Halifax Kenny and Stairs (Tory) will have about 700; in Inverness (Zameron (Tory) has 450; in Hants Putnam (Tory), 124; in Lunenburg Kaulbach (Tory), 37; in Pictou Tupper and McDougald (Tory), 33; in Pictou Tupper and McDougald (Tory), 734 and 688 respectively; in Richmond Gillies (Tory), 142; in Shelburne White (Tory), 17; in Victoria McDonald (Tory), 53. The Liberals carried Digby by about 100, Guysboro' by 84. Kings by 179, Queen's by 44 and Yarmouth by 548. It is now a generally accepted fact that the Government, finding they would be defeated in Quebec, Gooded New Brunswick and Nova Scotia with money, and with good effect.

Railway Directors Held Responsible for an Accident.

New York, March 7.—Coroner Levy has issued warrants for the arrest of five of the railroad officials alleged by his jury to be responsible for the Harlem tunnel disaster. The gentlemen named in the warrants were Chauncey M. Depew, G. N. Miller, Wilson G. Hunt, Joseph Park and Wm. Rockefeller. Mr. Depew appeared at the coroner's office and furnished the bond of Cornelius Vanderbilt for $25,000. Mr. Park surrendered himself, and H. J. Park, his son, went on his bond for $25,000. President Clark surrendered soon after Mr. Park did. He also gave a bond in $25,000. The warrants for Messers. Miller and Hunt have not yet been served owing to the advanced age of the gentlemen. The coroner said he would wait until Monday night in their cases. The coroner has signed warrants for the arrest of the other directors and they will be arrested as quickly as possible. Operators McManus and Breen were discharged by the coroner and Engineer Fowler is under $10,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

between him and his family.

Wednesday evening three masked men took possession of the Shreveport and Houston Railroad depot at Shreveport, La. They blew open the safe and secured $400. At 2 o'clock Thursday morning the safe in the office of the Shreveport and Arkansas Railroad was blown open, it is believed by the same man.

Brush the Head Frequently.

If there is nothing the matter with the head or the skin the bair will grow all right if it is treated in the natural way. Ordinarily stiff brushes should be used, and occasional rubbing and smoothing out with the hauds are soothing to the head and good for the hair. Menfal workers are especially troubled with neulrigic pains and headaches, which frequently kill the coloring pigments and turn the hair prematurely gray. Combing and rubbing the scalp of the lead with the hand draws the blood up to the surface of the head, and not only the head with the hand draws the blood up to the surface of the head, and not only relieves the pain at times, but adds new strength to the hair. Those suffering from neuralgic head pains should spend half an hour in this work every night before re-hour in this work massage treatment also has a tendency to cure dandruff. It strengthens the skin and opens the pores, so that the blood can throw off its effect matter.—[Yankee Blade. A Dead and Alive Soldier.

A Dead and Alive Soldier.

After the battle at Custozza, a soldier, supposed to have been killed, was entered on the books of his company, "Died on the 24th June, 1866," etc. A few days afterwards it turned out that he was still alive, and the honest quartermaster made the following entry: "Died by mistake," At length there came a letter from the Minister of War announcing the death of the man at the hospital, when our sergeant recorded the fact as follows: "Re-died by order of the Ministry." A Healthy Location.

City man (looking for a home in the suburbs)—I like this place very much, but I am told it isn't healthy.

Agent—Ain't healthy! D've see that mule over in that field? That mule hez lived here all his life, an' it ain't a week since he kicked a locomotive off th' track. Clever Isdeed.

Mrs. New-I have a capital idea on Mr. New (with agitation)—For heaven's Mrs. New—I will buy a French poodle, dear. He will eat the scraps of food that we are now wasting. Therefore they will be saved. Now, isn't that clever of me?

Have you ever tried Imperial Cream Tartar Baking Powder! Do so; it is the purest and best; always reliable.
