Mrs. Ann Hepburn, widow of the late William Hepburn, died at the old home, 440 York street, near Port Stanley, on Monday evening of paralysis in her 79th year. She came from Abernethy, Fife, Scotland, 45 years ago, and has resided in York since. She was a member of the Methodist mission in Japan, is revisiting St. Thomas, her former home. The death occurred at Port Stanley. Owing to increase in freight traffic four new cars have been put to work on the I. C. R.

Windsor now has a lady physician. Fifty years ago Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Marenette were married in Windsor, and their golden anniversary was celebrated in a very happy manner. A public dinner was given at the St. Albans' Church in the morning by Rev. Dean Wagner, assisted by Rev. Fathers Scanlan and Gauthier. There were over 200 relatives of the aged couple in the church, and the festivities of the family residence on Marenette avenue were continued throughout the day. Among the presents, which were very elaborate, was a gold tea service. Mr. Marenette was born in a farm on which Windsor is now built in 1841, Oct. 11, 1842, he married Miss Victoria Parent, and has now living five sons and two daughters.

The young son of C. S. Campbell, of Bruce avenue, got hold of a razor and nearly cut off two of his fingers.

The Amherstburg council on Monday night decided to submit to the taxpayers a by-law granting $25,000 for the extension of the electric road to that place.

HURON.

LAMETON.

An interesting event occurred at Watford on Tuesday, when George W. Rop, agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad, Missoula, Montana, was married to Miss Maud, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williams. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Thompson, rector of Trinity Church, in the presence of about 300 invited guests. Miss Lotta Cook supported the bride and H. T. Williams, editor of the Guide-Advocate, was best man. The happy young couple left on the evening train for their home in the west.

Saturday afternoon a prisoner named James Henderson, who was at the Saratoga jail awaiting his trial for burglarizing the Bowdoin House at Wyoming, escaped and has not yet been captured. He was engaged with other prisoners in carrying in some wood to the jail when he got away.

A despatch from Saratoga says that Mrs. Frank B. Pettit recently attempted suicide by taking nine grains of strychnine. Her condition was discovered before the poison had done its work, and with medical aid she was soon brought out of danger. Mrs. Pettit is the wife of Frank B. Pettit, until recently proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel. They were married only a few months ago. Mrs. Pettit being formerly a Mrs. Gray, of Algona.

Dixon, of Tilsonburg, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Alice Geary and Miss Fannie Farncomb. The groom was attended by Mr. Fred Farncomb and Mr. Nichols, of Newmarket. Guests from a distance were Mr. George Moncrieff, M.P., Petrolia; Mr. Wm. Moncrieff, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Lyman, of Toronto, and Mrs. (Rev.) John Farncomb, of Newmarket.

The anniversary services in connection with the Melbourne Methodist church were held on Sunday and Monday last, 9th and 10th inst. Rev. R. J. Trevelyan, of St. Thomas, presided, and delivered appropriate sermons on the Sabbath, and the thanksgiving dinner on Monday evening was a huge success. The tables were managed by the indefatigable members of the Ladies Aid Society. Rev. T. E. Harrison, pastor of the church, presided, and interesting and profitable addresses were given by the chairman and Rev. Messrs. Locke, of Alveston; McAllister, of Fingert, and Lancelotti, of Ridgeway; also J. M. Corneil, J.P., of Glenora. The music was furnished by local talent, assisted by Messrs. Brittain and Maitland, of Stratford. The report was read by Mr. George Richards and was highly satisfactory, showing marvelous liberality on the part of the Methodist people. The amount asked for on Sabbath, with the results of the tea meeting, reached the splendid sum of $1,504.29, completely clearing the church of debt and leaving a balance in the hands of the treasurer of over $70. Melbourne Methodists are now rejoicing over their prosperity and are taking steps towards the erection of a parsonage for the comfort of the pastor and his wife.

PERTH.

At a meeting of the Western Dairyman's Association at Stratford on Monday Mr. C. E. Chadwick, of Ingersoll, was appointed honorary secretary, and Mr. Wheaton, of Ottawa, secretary. On Saturday night two young men named John Hill and John Redmond, it is alleged, forcibly entered the house of Mrs. French, at Mitchell, and brutally assaulted her. They have been traced to Stratford. Mr. K. Eardley-Wilmot, the accountant of the Bank of Montreal at Stratford, has been transferred to the Guelph agency. Monday night, his friends, including a large number of prominent citizens, banded him at the Windsor Hotel, and presented him with a handsomely filled purse and an address.

OTHER WESTERN ONTARIO NOTES.

Mrs. Hiccock, of Paris, has been conducting a wonderful temperance revival in Bruce county.

It is rumored that Rev. G. Forrester, rector of All Saints' Church, Hamilton, is about to receive a call from a Toronto church.

Dr. Oille has obtained 1,000 signatures to his petition to Hamilton City Council, to have a bonus of $175,000 to the Niagara Central Railway Company.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

Ably Discussed by Rev. W. A. Mackay, B.A., of Woodstock—The Government and Liquor Require Alteration.

Rev. W. A. Mackay, B.A., of Woodstock, lectured to a good-sized audience in the First Presbyterian Church last evening. His subject was temperance. Rev. W. J. Clark, pastor of the church, occupied the chair and briefly introduced the speaker. The destruction caused by the use of liquor, Mr. Mackay said, was going on and there was the consequent amount of trouble and unhappiness. In one year 628 children under the age of 15 years were brought before the police magistrate in Toronto. The traffic that produced all this was sanctioned by the Government. Too many of the ministers kept silent on the matter, and the people allowed the present state of affairs to continue. How were people to stop this destruction of their children? By recognizing that their cause was God's cause, and that their power was entirely from above. Prayer should be offered for those engaged in the liquor traffic, for the victim of strong drink, for the wife and children of the drunkard, for public men and for the ministers of the Gospel. God would answer the prayers to which earnest personal effort should be added. Should we not be willing to sacrifice ourselves in order to prevent such trouble and crime as existed throughout the world? There were societies and conventions almost innumerable, but what was wanted was more Christian fire. The speaker said he had gone into places and been kicked out by drunken men. Ten thousand people wept when an unknown boy passed over Niagara Falls, and yet how much weeping was there over the destruction by strong drink of thousands of young men? Three-fifths of the men under the age of 30 years, millions of dollars were used in patent medicines to cure men of the habit of drinking, and not a dollar could be got to distribute literature on the subject. Was not the prevention better than the cure? The liquor traffic was contrary to the Word of God, and if politicians could be made to realize this, the laws licensing the traffic would be done away with. In order to get rid of the traffic we must use a great deal of discretion in voting for a parliamentary candidate. The speaker said he had voted for both Grits and Tories, but he did not like either. Two-thirds of Mr. Mowat's supporters in the Local House were not prohibitionists. What we must do is to vote only for the candidate who comes out entirely opposed to the liquor traffic. We might go forever voting for Grits and Tories and yet we would not get prohibition. If we were to get three men in Parliament who would do more good than all the party men who denounced the liquor traffic. Prohibition must be put above politics. It was just as dishonest to go into the ballot box and vote one way after having talked another as it was to go behind a counter and lie and cheat or do anything else that was wrong. There was not a man in all Persia that could have done the work that Queen Esther once did. Women should take an active interest in putting down the liquor traffic.

Mr. Mackay is a fluent and forcible and at times intensely fervid. At the conclusion of his address the audience passed a hearty vote of thanks.

THE FALL FAIRS.

Good Shows at Ridgeway, Wyoming and Blyth.

RIDGECROW, Ont., Oct. 12.—This was the second day of the Howard Branch Agricultural Society's Fair. Every class was fully represented and well filled and the quality excellent. The show of horses is probably the best ever witnessed. There are no less than 2,000 entries of horses alone. The show of cattle, sheep and pigs is above the average, one animal in the latter class weighing over 800 pounds. In the palace the exhibit of ladies' work was first-class. The special attractions were fully up to expectations. Fully 7,000 people were on the grounds.

WYOMING.

WYOMING, Oct. 12.—The Wyoming and Plympton fair held here to-day was one of the most successful in the history of the association. There was a very large attendance and the exhibits of live stock were good, but the grain, roots and fruit samples were by no means up to the average. The display of ladies' fancy work was ahead of anything ever before shown here.

BLYTH.

BLYTH, Oct. 12.—The annual fall exhibition of the Morris Branch Agricultural Society was held here yesterday and to-day and eclipsed all former years in attendance and exhibits. The ladies' department was simply grand. Mrs. (Dr.) Carter, Mrs. McFarlane and Mrs. Campbell deserve great credit for their display of painting, pencil work, etc. The outside departments were fully up to former years, and the directors and managers are to be congratulated on the pronounced success of the show.

The Bliss Tragedy.

SMITH'S FALLS, Oct. 12.—The adjourned inquest as to the reasons of the death of the victim of the New Bliss tragedy was resumed on Wednesday at the village of Irish Creek, on the line of the C. P. R., about 22 miles north of Brockville.

The British papers are full of anecdotes about Tennyson, and of accounts of his habits and peculiarities. It is recalled that the poet was extremely fond of dogs. His especial favorite was a beautiful wolfhound, the gift of a Russian nobleman. This and his familiarity to all who saw the poet abroad. A white Arab steed, especially imported for Tennyson, was among the numerous pets kept at Aldworth. Tennyson had an odd custom of keeping on hand a large collection of short clay pipes. There were often as many as 200 of these on his study floor ready for use. Each one, after being smoked, was placed in the fender for a fresh burning.
