ORIGIN OF OLD FAMILIAR SONGS

"DAYS OF ABSENCE" HAS BEEN SUNG FOR THE PAST THREE HUNDRED YEARS.

"Porter's" Satirical Song in "Pinafore"-"Ruler of the Oueen's Navee" a Great Hit.

written by Jean Jacques Rousseau, the celebrated French author, who was born Mail. in Geneva, Switzerland, June 28, 1712, the descendant of a family of Paris booksellers and Protestant refuges. His mother died when he was born, and his boyhood days were delicate and his boyhood days were delicate and April, cheap one-way colonist tickets sickly. He lived successively with an will be issued to the west as follows, engineer, a lawyer and an engraver, viz.: from whom he picked up a varied fund of information. After a series of romantic and miserable adventures he devoted himself to the study of music, which he afterwards taught, and invented a new system of musical nota- Portland, Ore., also Victoria, Vancoution. He published several operas and musical works before he turned his attention to the writings for which he in the front rank of classic writers of France, and gave him the title of the "father of modern democracy." died near Paris July 2, 1778. His melody has long been in the hymn books under the title of "Greenville," that it seems odd to connect it with this French love song. In Europe it is known as "Rous-seau's Dream." The words are as fol-

Days of absence, sad and dreary, Clothed in sorrow's dark array; Days of absence, I am weary, She I love is far away. When the heavy sigh be banish'd, When this bosom cease to mourn; Hours of bliss too quickly vanish When will angel like you return?

Not till that loved voice can greet me, Which so oft has charmed mine ear Not till those sweet eyes can meet me, Telling that I still am dear: absence then will vanish, Joy will all my pangs repay; Soon my bosom's idol banish Gloom, but felt when she's away,

All my love is turned to sadness, Absence pays the tender vow, Hopes that filled the heart with gladness Memory turns to anguish now; Love may yet return to me, Hope may take the place of pain; Antoinette with kisses meet me

Breathing love and peace again. THE RULER OF THE QUEEN'S

NA-VEE. William Schwenk Gilbert, English drabeen devoted to literature. His name to convert the swan is generally associated with that of Sir into first-class fuel. Arthur Seymour Sullivan, born in London, May 13, 1841, whom he collar extraordinary one, has been found for comic operas. Gilbert furnished the libretti and Sullivan the words of "The Mikado," "Pinafore," "Pirates of Penzance" and many others. The song liched a few months age at Colhridge given below is sung by Sir Joseph Porter lished a few months ago at Cebridge in "Pinafore." Mr. Gilbert also wrote County Kildare, which has been en-

When I was a lad I served a term floor, And I polished up the handle of the big front door

As office boy I made such a mark That they gave me the post of junior And I copied all the letters in a big employed in this new enterprise. round hand.
I polished up the handle so care-ful-lee
That now I am the ruler of the Queen's Na-vee.

I copied all the letters in a hand so free,

In serving writs I made such a name, That an articled clerk I soon became; wore clean collars and a brand new

And now I am the ruler of the Queen's

For the pass examination at the In-And that pass examination did so well for me.

That now I am the ruler of the Queen's

Of legal knowledge I acquired such a That they took me into the partnership, And that junior partnership I ween Was the only ship that I ever had

But that kind of a ship so suited me, That now I am the ruler of the Queen's

I grew so rich that I was sent a pocket borough into parliament; l always voted at my party's call, And never thought of thinking for myself at all.

I thought so little they rewarded me By making me the ruler of the Queen's

Now landsmen all, whoever you may be, If you want to rise to the top of the If your soul isn't fettered to an office Be careful to be guided by this golden

Queen's Na-vee.

ANCIENT ENGLISH INNS. Somehow one always hears with regret that one of England's famous old mossgrown, ivy-clad inns is about to be demolished. The Old King of Prussia hostelry is the latest to pass into the housebreak-This old inn is in Finchley, in the keeping of one family.

The Old King of Prussia is a picturesque half-timbered house, and many a noted highwayman has partaken of its hospitality. The grandfather of the pres-ent proprietor was quite a noted character, having vanquished several notor-ious highwaymen on Finchley common. Inn. Highgate Hill, dates back to the was called the Salutation Inn. It is built entirely of wood. Another famous inn is the Bald-faced Stag at Edgeware. Nobody knows when it was originally built and it would seem as though each successive proprietor has endeavored to place his mark on its architectural aspect, for many parts of it have evidently at different times has been rebuilt. In the stables it is alleged Dick Turpin had his horse's shoes turned, so as to make his pursuers imagine he had gone in an opposite direction.

Among the very oldest of suburban Lon
THE CONDUCTING

THE CONDUCTING

About 20 yards off when I first saw him I was about to take aim and bring him down where he stood, when my most trusted man, Malaonen, stopped me, saying in a whisper, "Not time yet."

"We stood in silence, gun in hand. The gorilla looked at us for a moment or so then beat his breast with his gigantic arms,—and what arms he had!—then gave another howl of defiance and advanced upon us. How terrible he looked!

"Not yet," whispered Malaonen.

"Again the gorilla made an advance

Among the very oldest of suburban Lon-Among the very cidest of suburpan London inns are the Plough at Kingsbury Green and the King James and Tinker Inn at Enfield. The first is said to be $50 years old, and the latter was reputed to have been first built as an inn and under another name $92 years ago. Its present name is derived from an ending the property of the proper Its present name is derived from an en-The words and melody of the well known song, "Days of Absence," were written by Jean Jacques Rousseau the content which King James I. is said to have had with a tinker at the door of the inn. The tinker's conversation so pleased the king that he made the mendather of kettles "a knight, with $500 a year,"

> Cheap One-Way Rates to the West Via Great Northern Railway.

Effective daily during March and

London to Anaconda, Butte, Chinook, and Telena, Mont., $39 25. London to Spokane, Wash., Nelson, Rossland, Trail, Grand Forks, and Robson, B. C., $39 75. London to Seattle, Tacoma, Wash.;

ver and New Westminster, B. C.. $42 25. Proportionate rates from all points in Ontario. On March 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29, and is chiefly known, and which placed him April 5, 12, 19 and 26, one way second-in the front rank of classic writers of class tickets will be issued from Chicago to points in North Dakota at greatly reduced rates.

Full particulars as to time of trains, sleeping car rates, etc., on application to Charles W. Graves, district passenger agent, 6 King street west, room 12, senger agent. St. Paul. Minn.

PEAT IS NOW USED IN MAKING OF PAPER

ANOTHER GOOD USE FOUND FOR SWAMP MUD-SUBSTITUTE FOR PULP WOOD.

Peat has hitherto been used chiefly as fuel; sometimes, in a dry, pulverized condition, as litter for stables and stockyards. During and since the coal famine of a year ago many schemes were suggested by which it may be utilized to serve as an excel-lent substitute for anthracite and bituminous coal. Mr. Edward Atkinson as a result of his investigation into the matter has claimed that we possess a vast store of riches in the swamps and peat areas of New England and other sections of the country and that we can become practically inmatist and humorist, was born in London, November 18, 1836, and was educated working legions whenever we see fit by bar but most of his life has a very simple and inexpensive process His name to convert the swamp mud around us it by certain experimenters in Ireland. It makes an excellent quality of paper. lished a few months ago at Celbridge gaged in converting Irish peat into wrapping paper of various grades. The mill site is on the River Liffey, about As office boy to an attorney's firm,

I cleaned the windows and I swept the the eastern margin of the great bog of twenty-five miles from Dublin, near Allen which extends westward about seventy miles to the River Shannon. The motive power is both steam and water. Only the energy of the river generates a certain volume of electric force sufficient for present needs. I served the writs with a smile so bland, About seventy hands are now steadily

The process of converting the peat into paper is a wonderful metamorphosis. Carts are engaged hauling the raw peat from the bog, where it is dug direct to the mill. Then begins the various processes of cooking with the necessary chemicals until it becomes reduced to the conditions of pulp required, after which the methods lowed are very similar to those of the a singular sight to see the black peat fresh from the bog thrown into mill at one end and follow it to the other end where it emerges as paper. It is claimed for the new industry, this latest discovery, that it will prove an opulent mine of wealth among the Certainly the caw ma-Irish people. terial is at hand in great abundance in the ample boglands of the island, and certainly the conversion of peat paper as a profitable practical business; more than a little startling. But it is said that several of the Dublin wholesale paper houses are back of the enterprise and that its success is substantially assured .- Boston Transcript.

NO ALCOHOL IN IT .- Alcohol or any other volatile matter which would impair strength by evaporation, does not of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Nor do climatic changes affect it. It is as serof Dr. viceable in the Arctic Circle as in the Torrid Zone, perhaps more useful in the higher latitudes, where man is more sub-ject to colds from exposure to the ele-ments.

As the result of proceedings taken by R. Moffat Ford, a well-known automobilist and manufacturer, four drivers of electric street cars on the outskirts of And you may all be rulers of the London were fined $9 72 each, with court costs, for exceeding their legal speed limit of 10 miles an hour.

IN ITS INITIAL STAGES a cold is a local ailment easily dealt with. But many development of distressing seizures of the bronchial tubes and lungs that render if e miserable for the unhappy vietim. As a first aid there is nothing in the handy medicine line so certain in curative and from 1757, when the place was built, results as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive until the present day the license has been Syrup, the far-famed remedy for colds Heart disease and nervous prostration are almost unknown among the Japanese. This immunity is attributed to the

Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere are Capt. Fitz-Egger, a Swiss cavalry offi- and they are often valuable sources of on record that he once had an en-Highgate Hill, dates back to the of the reformation. Originally it

CRESOLENE IS A BOON TO ASTHMATICS

BENING, MILES & Co., 1681 Noire bame St., Montreal, Canadian Agents

Cresolene Antiseptic Tablets

dissolved in the month are effective and safe for coughs and irritation of the throat.

10c a bex. ALL DRUGGISTS

FOR MANY WOMEN.

Great Deal to Learn.

The cult of the cat is a recent thing in America, but in England fine cats are raised by wealthy amateurs and for sport, and by many others for profit. For some time the Maine cat farms have flourished, and of late the rearing of these animals for sale has been established on a better and more professional basis in many parts of the country. Women owning country and suburban homes find cat raising pleasant and profitable. The business is one that may be begun on a very small. one that may be begun on a very small fell dead almost without a struggle." scale or a tolerably large one, as the about cats. The varieties of commercially valuable cats are few, but questions of color and other points must be carefully considered. On them deper carefully considered. On them depend the value of a cat, which, being purely ornamental, has only these carried on by persons two milese apart.

The meat received into Smithfield mar-Persian and the Angora, are the only tons

"Not yet," whispered Malaonen.

"Again the gorilla made an advance upon us. Now he was twelve yards off. His face was distorted with rage; his huge teeth were ground against each other so that we could hear the sound, and the skin of his forehead was drawn forward and back rapidly, making his hair move up and down giving a fiendish expression to his hideous face. Again he roared, a sound that shook the woods like thunder. It seemed as if I could scale or a tolerably large one, as the disposition and purse of the individual dictates. Until the subject has been thoroughly studied, and the physical and mental nature of the cat is well understood common sense indicates that the cattery be kept small.

There really is a great deal to learn about cats. The varieties of company.

Owing to the clearness of the air, con-

THE ENTHUSIAST.

Jones (whose breakfast has been waiting for the last half-hour-"Now, if only they can get from Chemulpo to Wi-ju," etc, etc.-London Punch.

sentials these cats are one and the same, the difference being in the texture of the coats. They come from goras; those brought from Asia are called Persian. Cat fanciers usually brought into the state by roving sea-men, having become decidedly mixed, until now they form a species of their own, the name "coon cat" seeming to; have long noses and shaggy coats, as well as other objectionable points belonging exclusively to short-haired Some beautiful cats cats. in Maine, but they bred exceptions and are valueless breeding purposes. Most of the choice cats in America are from English catteries, which are recruited from Persia and Turkey These English cats are usually perfect ly reliable stock, the sporting instinct of the Briton being even larger than his commercial sense. Many of the catteries are owned by women of wealth who have no interest in their pets aside from the desire to win cups and prizes, and who would not own, much less sell, inferior specimens. costs something like $5 to bring a cat across the Atlantic, and there i no duty on pedigreed animals brought into the country for breeding purposes. The price of young cats from the best stock ranges from $5 to $40 in Eng but exceptional cats often bring much higher prices. There is no tell ing what would be asked for a perfec black Persian without a single white hair. It is hardly probable that such a rare animal exists out of Persia, i indeed it exists there. Prices in thi country are in a somewhat chaotic While there are not many per state. fectly reliable catteries in America, is quite possible to buy fine animals The amateur should avoid advertisements, but should seek the advice of expert judges, who will be able to direct her to the right dealers. There plenty of cat clubs in the country information, although it must be owned that expert cat knowledge is extremely rare even in the cat clubs of this country. Every one has heard of the famous hoax played at one of the New York cat shows by a well-known inveterate joker. He sent a fine shorthair cat, oddly marked and colored but without other distinguishing fea tures, gave it a fantastic name and a luxurious basket and put a value of $10,000 on his entry. The cat had colored servant who waited on it zeal ously, and grew violently agitated it spectators ventured to touch it. It received prizes galore, to the chagrin of the judges when the true story came out.-New York Evening Post.

CHAILU'S FIRST GORILLA. In his "Explorations and Adventures in Equatorial Africa," the late Paul du hailu tells of his first encounter with

"We saw an immense one coming straight towards us out of the woods. As he came he gave vent to terrible howls of rage, as much as to say, "I am tired of being pursued and will face you."
"It was a lone male—the kind that is always the most feroclous. This fellow made the woods resound with his roar. which is an awful sound, resembling the 304 which is an awful sound, resembling the mutterings of distant thunder. He was

London beauty doctor, who makes the feet a special study, says he does not condemn his clients to wear ugly the high mountain places of Turkey boots with dreadful square toes, and a and the cold tablelands of Central dat-footed look about them, because these rible cuts on his head, and howling in are neither beautiful nor desirable. He however, insist that very high heels shall tucking his tail as far between his legs be given up, for to them the maximum ills suffered by the human foot are due. speak of both as Persian, especially in this country, where it is the preoccupation of breeders to eliminate the for high heels, says the Philadelphia In-Maine "Angora" strain. The Maine cat quirer. One is that the practice adds is not a pure breed, the original stock heights to the body; another that it adds gracefulness to the carriage. To the latter one might take exception, for it may do so as long as the wearer stands still, but when she moves about it imparts what can best be described as a wobbling describe them appropriately. They motion, which is the reverse of gracefu The foot in length should be the length of the ulna, a bone in the forearm, which extends from a protuberance in the oute portion of the wrist to the elbow. Of course, the ulna is no longer in tall people, and to be graceful the foot should be

Many people may be surprised that the foot should be as long as the forearm, and might be inclined to dispute the fact unless proved by demonstration. But so it is in the perfectly formed woman.

tions" in a year's time.

Was Unable to do any Work for Four or Five Months.

Was Weak and Miserable.

Thought She Would Die.

Dootor Could Do No Good.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

of MRS. CAROLINE HUTT, Morrisburg, Ont.

She says : "It affords me great pleasure to speak about what your Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. About a year ago I was taken ill with heart trouble and got so bad that I was unable to do any work for four or five months. I got so weak and miserable that my friends thought I was going to die. The doctor attended me for some time but I continued to grow worse. At last I decided to try Milburn's to the markets in their natural conditions and the yellow blossoms are dyed great and Nerve Pills, and after taking and white, and woven into wreat and white. two boxes they made me well and strong again. I cannot praise them too highly to those suffering from nervous weakness and heart troubles. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Fills are so cents per box, or 3 for $1.25 at all

WOODCHUCK'S WAY OF LIVING

WHAT SHE DID AFTER WAKING FROM HER SLEEP IN THE WINTER MONTHS.

Habits of the Little Animal Which Boys Love to Hunt With Dog. and Gun.

frame, and when she moved it was are perfectly fitted to the head and bear no trace of artificiality. in woodchucks. The fact is she had but just awakened from an all-winter sleep, and as she had fasted since the previous October, she was not only drowsy, but famished. But perhaps it was disuse as much as anything else which caused the evident weakness of her limbs, for as she moved about little, stretching herself in different directions, it could be seen that she was gaining strength with every movement By and by she turned around, and, putting her head and shoulders into the burrow, began raking out, with her forepaws, all the earth, leaves and grass with which she had blocked the things to be presented in its favor. Ret every year for the feeding of London entrance in the fall. With this rub-practically, the long-haired cat, the exceeds four hundred and three thousand bish came away many living things black beetles, a hornet and a large green frog, all of which had been sleepng away the winter at the wood-chuck's door.

After she had made a neat pile in ront of the burrow and covered it up with fresh loam from the tunnel itself, the woodchuck had strength to go off search of some food. There was very little to get just then, for the winter had barely gone, but she found little patch of green clover on the sunny side of a large rock, a tuft or two of coarse grass near the spring, and with these and a few mouthfuls of bark from a nearby tree, she managed to make a moderate breakfast. Then she returned to the burrow, and stayed there for two days. By that time the grass had grown considerably and the woodchuck had less difficulty in getting a meal. And every morning after food became more plentiful; the clover appeared in larger and thicker way, some small object struck the what the trouble was, and she did not stop to find out, but pitched headfirst into the burrow and stayed there.

As she disappeared, a small boy, branThe brasses may be poinsed until they rival gold in their radiance, and placed where they will be the most effective. Whatever they may be—candle—sticks, trays, hot water kettles, teamoishing a Flobert rifle, and follownear he had come to the chuck. He also be brave with gilt.

The refreshments should have yellow The refreshments should have yellow stuffed eggs. pulled a grimace when he saw where his bullet had pitted the earth, reloaded his weapon and went back to his either hot or cold, are good, the yolks ed his weapon and went back to his hiding-place. But the woodchuck, not taken from the hard boiled eggs, mixed with seasoning and minced chicken or ham, and then returned to the halved whites, which are set cup-like in a dish. If the eggs are hot a yellow sauce may the yellow dog still at his heels. The boy now picked up the dog and put its nose to the mouth of the burrow, and after a few words of encourage— mayonaise served with it. The sweet mayonaise served with it. The sweet mayonaise served with it. ment, the cur, which had more as- may be an ice, or it may be a macedoine surance than wisdom, plunged into the of fruit served in halved orange peels or black hole. The boy sat down on the in mandarin rinds. Instead of the large mound of earth and yelled "Sic 'em, Prince!" and for about a minute no golden frosting and each adorned with Prince!" and for about a minute no doubt Prince was doing as he was bid. After that it seemed the woodchuck number 50. All these are to be lighted did most of the "sicking," for the dog before the guests enter the dining room backed out of the burrow with two ter- or before the cakes, arrayed on a napkinas he could get it he made for home by a short cut, and at his very best

FIVE LITTLE ONES.

Not long after the woodchuck ap peared at the mouth of the burrow with a family of five little ones. They had ploited at the Louisiana Purchase Exbeen born some time before, but this position. Eleven years have rolled away was their first appearance in the open. was their first appearance in the open. coated little fellows, ready to topple back again out of sight at a sign from their mother. Every morning now the whole family might have been seen feminine juror will be appointed. moving through the grass to the spots. Much of the handicraft of women will where the clover grew the thickest. For be exhibited in the Palace of Varied Ina short time they lived in peace, but dustries. The exquisite statue entitled one evening they made themselves a "The Indu-'ry of Women," by Kotif. one evening they made themselves a powerful enemy by journeying into the next field, and eating off, close to the ground, three long rows of young peas. faithful housewife, who, with distaff in The owner of the peas said very little, hand, spins the thread from which the but he drove to town and brought back garments of the family are woven. From facturers turn out about $104,000,000 of what might be termed "chemical producfar into the burrow. A minute later above the position of a slave, by slow there was a muffled boom, and the farmer went off, satisfied that he would not be bothered again by that family an important factor in business, politics, of woodchucks. But in the evening a religion and art. In fact, she has taken cautious gray head was thrust from up almost every avocation once usurped the mouth of the hole, and soon our by man. old woodchuck crawled from her home and made off slowly across the field.

DYNAMITE AND GUN. The dynamite had killed the young ones, but their mother had only been stunned. She went directly to an old burrow which she had occupied two years before, and next morning there was a large heap of fresh earth in front of it. She lived there quietly until the latter part of the summer, when, returning after an absence some what longer than usual, she found the entrance to her home barred by a snarling black head with a white stripe down the front. The premises had been seized by a skunk, and the woodchuck was obliged to seek a residence elsewhere. She started to dig a fresh tunnel on the other side of the ield, and for hours she threw out the soil with her strong claws. The following afternoon she was still at work when the figure of a man in brown overalls crept under the brow of the hill and lay down behind a rock at the For half an hour the woodchuck worked on, and at last she appeared at the doorway for a breathing spell. A little curl of white smoke leaped from behind the rock, there was a sharp report, and the woodchuck dropped back into a newly-made grave.-Washington Star.

IMMORTELLE WREATHS. The manufacture of immortelle wreaths persons. The immortelles are gathered about the beginning of October, and come chiefly from the arid hills in the middle and south of France. They are brought to the markets in their natural condition, and the vellow blossoms are dved green by special workmen, in readiness for All Saints' and All Souls' days, when all good Parisians visit their relatives' graves. On these "fetes des morts" the gates of the cemeteries are beset with crowds o dealers in immortelle wreaths, wire crosses and head crowns. At Pere ta Chaise alone more than two hundred THE T. MILBURN CO., Limited, thousand persons are calculated to visit the cemetery, and the sale of immortelle wreaths varies from 2000 to 25000.—The Golden Penny.

PROF. DORENWEND

OF TORONTO

The Greatest Hair Goods Artist in America IS COMING TO LONDON. Will be at GRIGG HOTEL On Monday, April 18th

LADIES, if you appreciate the added charm and the younger appearance lent to the face by having beautiful hair, do not fail to see the grand assortment of SWITCHES, BANGS, POMPADOURS, WAVY FRONTS AND WIGS, which Prof. Dorenwend will have with him. Consultations entirely free and demonstrations given regarding these beautiful conceptions in natural hair. GENTLEMEN WHO ARE BALD-Even though you are bald or partially so, you can regain your former appearance by wearing DORENWEND'S WIGS AND TOUPEES. They are made to match any shade of hair. They are a protection zled pelt hung loosely on her bony to the head and a cure for chronic cold in the head and catarrh. They

> Prof. Dorenwend will take measurements and demonstrate the merits of his

DON'T FORGET THE DAY

Monday, April 18th.

SEE THAT THE

BREWARE

face is not perhaps as classically correct as that of the exquisite statue of Industry, but the thoughtful expression, the sweet decision of the mouth, and the contour of the face, all demonstrate the

THE GIRL WHO DOES.

It is the girl who does things in this world who is attractive, both to men and to her own sex, which last counts a lit-tle, too, in the long run. You may not be able to do great things, to paint, things for yourself and your friends, an perhaps to play the light, "catchy" airs of the day so that your friends will enjoy them, and if you can't do anything and of being sympathic.

Every girl can do one thing well if she will only take the trouble to find the she will only take the sympathic to the sympathic thing.

she will only take the trouble to find out what that thing is. The difficulty is that she often looks in the opposite direction: she wants to do something great and showy or nothing at all. But there are other talents within reach if she will great pictures or sing in

DONALD McLEAN, Agent, 436 Richmond Street, LONDON.

GOLDEN WEDDING SUGGESTIONS. Greek housekeeper with that of the For the golden wedding no flowers are possible but those of the most brilliant wellow. The season must determine what clover appeared in larger and thicker patches, and gradually the wrinkles in the grizzled skin of the groundhog behave the big yellow coreopsis or blackthe grizzled skin of the groundhog began to disappear.

HUNTER AND DOG.

One morning, after the little rodent had had her morning meal of clover, and she was taking a sun bath on the mound of earth in front of her doorway, some small object struck the mound about six inches in front of her face, and threw a pinch of the dirt sharply in her eyes. Sheedid not know sharply in her eyes. She did not know the table. The brasses may be polished vars-t nev cannot fail to be ornamer ed by a little yellow dog, jumped from The baskets or other wicker receptacles ed by a little yellow dog, jumped from the hild flowers may be gilded, and as behind a hildock and ran up to see how much of the china used as possible may a tiny candle may be made to form the

where the company is assembled.-We man's Home Companion

THEN AND NOW. The following comparison of the work accomplished by women in former days and that done by them now is made by a recent writer:
Women's industries will be widely extion. Since that time women have explored many fields of endeavor formerly typifying woman in her primitive state this state, where woman scarcely rose

Between the women of an early age and those of the nineteenth century there is a gulf wide and deep. Education has done everything for woman. It has set having developed her brain. Contrast the covered board, are brought into the

are other talents within reach it she with only look, and these talents may be such a comfort to her in her dark hours that they will make life better and happier both for her and those about her. How the world likes a cheerful plucky irl who makes a brave fight and hide er skeleton in a closet instead of fold ng her hands and whining because things n't come her way; the girl who puts her own griefs as much as pos

Leipzig's new railway station cost 130,-000,000 marks ($32,000,000). Of this sum Prussia and Saxony contribute 53,000,000 who takes a wholesome interest in life

CO CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF T

"It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Price 25c, Large Size 50c.

E K KAKAK KAK KAK KAK KEL

PECULIAR TO MEN AND WOMEN It is sad to contemplate the unfortunate condition of so many men of our day and generation. At 30 they feel 50; at 40 they feel 60, and at 50 when they should be in the very prime of life, they are almost ready for when they should be in the very prime of life, they are almost ready for the grave. The fire of youth has gone out, the fountain of vitality is exhausted. Premature old age! No matter what produced it, whether evil habits in youth, later excesses, or business worries, the one thing for you to do is to get back the vim, the vigor and vivacity of manhood.

Don't lose your grip on life. There are yet many happy, golden years for you if you only get help. We can and will not only help you, but cure you to stay cured. Curing diseases and weaknesses of the nervous and sexual system has been our exclusive business for the past 30 years, during which time we have cured enough fallen men to make an army. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT will restore to you what you

It purifies and enriches the BLOOD, strengthens the NERVES, ritalizes the sexual organs, checks all unnatural drains and losses and fits a man for the active duties of life.

Cures Guaranteed or No Pay. We treat and cure Blood Polson, Varicoccle, Stricture, Glest, Urinary Drains, Sexual Weakness, Kidney and Biadder diseases, CONSULTATION FREE. If anable to call, write for a Question Blank for Home Treatment.

DRS.KENNEDY & KERGAN 148 Shelby St., DETROIT, MICH.

25 Years in Detroit. 250,000 Cured. Bank Security. K &K K&K K&K K&K K&K