

OF THE WORLD

Kate managed to drink it, though she heard a voice in the hall. It was her father's. With a shudder she hid her face in her hands and drew the dressing-gown about her head, as if to shut the voice out; then she started, and motioning to Marie to be silent, opened the door, and, creeping on to the landing, listened.

It osell the right one. You were to have this money—this blood-money!—for bettaying Kate; and when you'd got it you were going to be off. Ah!" and he grinned sardonically, "you'd have been off in a day or two—tomorrow, eh?—and left me to fight the battle! I know you. I haven't spent all these months.

Bob Reid's Maplewood Got Second Money at Port Huron Races

Go, Jersey City Looks Like a Winner.

Slowly and cautiously she went down can I call you?" the stairs and entered a small room adjoining the dining-room.

The major cowered, absolutely cowered. joining the dining-room. fabrics all over the place, and a pair hoars served as a screen between the two and had come to keep his appointment. His precious son-in-law had threatened to be rather slippery, and the major myself, with my own eyes!" felt that the sooner he got his money

Once he had cashed his check, good-bye to Sandford, and, indeed, to Eng-land.

Now, now she could hear wanted.

Arthur Corp Leave

In fact the greater the distance he white cliffs the better. Any moment Clifford Raven might discover that he You knew he was alive—stop! spare

And it would be just as well the major should be out of reach when tage at the quarry near Sandford, and

"Of course," he told nimself, they if compromise matters: Arthur will be tolerably well off. I've no doubt; drops of sweat standing on his brow, the composite property of the course of the man be had. shouldn't wonder if Desmond gives him as if he expected to see the man he had as if he expected to see the man he had Yes, it had all gone, or would go, beautifully, once he got his part of the

"Is the earl in?" he asked the butler in his best and most affable manner. 'His lordship is not down yet," said was there for?"

'All right; just tell him I am here, will you; but tell him not to hurry and Kate."
--ahem!—don't let her ladyship's maid
The disturb her ladyship.' It would be just as well, perhaps, if he did not see Kate that morning.

The butler went, and the major thur Carr-Lyon entered. He was in a Desmond on the head and laid him up, face was white, with livid shadows under his eyes, which looked dull and beat the lot of you, bloodshot, as if he had spent the night. The major uttered in company with a brandy bottle, as in-

"Ah, my dear Arthur!" exclaimed the major, extending his hand and smiling affectionately. "Here I am, you see, wedding, major, You can't undo that this stake, as she won it last year. Her meet. had business in London this morning, and I thought I'd drop in. How are you can't take her from me!" and I thought I'd drop in.

You? You are looking the picture of dered, leant forward.

"Am I?" said Arthur Carr-Lyon, eyeing him coldly. "Then my looks lie.
I've got a confounded headache, and my dear Arthur!" he said. rubbing his wonderful. No, no, I'm not afraid of they pass an examination in the Engmeet, and I thought that check would the srvice. you'd rather have it off your mind."

Then he sat down to the table and drew a dispatch-box towards him. ew a dispatch-box towards him stass spectacies are to be seen streets "Well, I suppose you've got to have ing their owners through the streets

The major started and turned rather "My dear boy, that language-" "What do you call it, then?" de- who have tried it have the same experimanded Arthur Carr-Lyon, turning in ence. his chair and eyeing him steadily.

there any other name you could give freshing scene on earth it is a newly the money a man gets for selling his married man sliding toward home with in sorrow than in anger, "this is venient.

strange language from a son-in-law to In Sheffield and some other northern Come, come; I'm sure English cities whenever a child is lost "Leave her name alone!" broke in the on the sidewalk describing the wanother, hoarsely. "I don't want to hear derer and giving the name and adit. I've got to reckon with you this dress of its relatives.

"I don't understand why you receive me in this spirit, Carr-Lyon," he said. beginning to bluster a little. "You know the arrangement between us. I've fulfilled my part of the contract, and I expect you to complete yours."

"Or else? What? You mean threaten me, do you? Speak out!" "Threaten, not at all. What should have to threaten you with?" "You don't know?" he demanded, with a sneer. "I'll tell you. If I don't give this check you'll split upon me! You'll go and make terms with Des-

The major started, and his face wen "Desmond!" he stammered. "Do you mean your cousin Desmond? poor fel-low! he lies dead and cold out there n Nevada-' "That's a lie!" said Arthur Carr-Lyon, slowly, and fixing the major's eye with a steady glare "What?" exclaimed the major. Arthur Carr-Lyon rose and pushed he dispatch-box from him with an

"I meant to play you a bit longer, to lead you on like a cat and mouse, and then smash you; but I haven't patience," he said. "Do you remembe the morning, three weeks ago, I asked you if you knew Clifford Raven?" Raven!" breathed the major, sinking into a chair and grasping the arms convulsively. Yes; and you lied, as you always You said that you didn't, that you'd never heard the name. Stopdon't speak; it isn't worth while. tell you who he is: he is Desmond Carr-Lyon, the man who owns the title and the estates—and you know it!"

"I-I-" stammered the major.

"And you knew it all along. You knew it when it was too late to go back upon me, or you would, wouldn't you? But it didn't pay you. She called Marie, and the girl, with gone too far-you'd put your head into murmured words of sympathy and sor- the neose. What do they give a man murmured words of sympathy and sor-row, dressed her, and then got her some tea.

That frightened you, didn't it? It frightens you now!" every drop threatened to choke her; he pointed a snaking iniger at the every drop threatened to choke her; he pointed a snaking iniger at the major's white, stricken face. "But that Presently, a little before 11 o'clock, wasn't all. You'd made a good bargain with me; you stood to win on the wrong horse, and you thought it best With a shudder she hid her face in to sell the right one. You were to have

If she could manage to overhear the conversation between the two men she might ascertain Clifford Raven's whereabouts served as a screen between the two "Yes-you!" retorted Artnur Carrrooms. Behind these she stood, white Lyon. "What! you'd stand and brave to me who The major had caught an early train, it out. You'd lie even to me, who and had come to keep his appointment.

"Where?" gasped the major.
Kate grasped the curtain tightly to felt that the sooner he got his plans all kate grasped the current the better. He had got his plans all keep her from falling.

Arthur Carr-Lyon laughed malignant enjoyment. ould put between himself and Albion's nose all the time! waiting for the mo-"Where? I'll tell you. Under your You knew he was alive-stop! spare estates, and then the bubble would know it. He was in your house; he yourself the trouble of denying it - I And it would be just as well that Why, man, I saw him myself in a cotdefrauded standing beside him.

"There?" he gasped. "Yes, there!" retorted Arthur Carr-Why, man, he was at the ball at Lydcote. And do you know what he

The major passed his hand over his wet brow. -"Because he was in love with

The major started, and Arthur Carr-Lyon laughed harshly. "Yes, you have made a mess of major. You have married her to the amused himself with the paper; tried to amuse himself, rather, for he felt volume for him for you, for him, for her!" And he chuckled Presently the door opened and Arbur Carr-Lyon entered. He was in a Savagely. "The odds were against me fellow knocked HAMBURG BELLE WON

> The major uttered an exclamation of impotent rage. "That touches you, does it?" sneered Arthur Carr-Lyon. "It's the truth. Kate's mine; let him come forward as him, take the title and the money, but

The major, utterly broken and bewil-[To be Continued.]

Conductors on the German state "Wonderful flow of humor, railways are to be discharged unless anything of the kind; but the fact is lish and French language, though ahem!—that I've got some bills to some of them have been 20 years in eet, and I thought that check would useful, you know. Besides, I know ou'd rather have it off your mind."

"Yes, you're all consideration for he," said Arthur Carr-Lyon, with a bottle of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; it is an effectual medicine. minator; it is an effectual medicine. Pet dogs in sunbonnets and blue > of Berlin in hot weather. A LADY WRITES: "I was enabled to remove the corns, root and branch, by the use of Holloway's Corn Cure." Others

"Is If there is really a delightfully re his first washboard.

"My dear Arthur—"
"Do you mean to say you didn't sell her?" he repeated, with suppressed savagery. "Do you mean to say that she married me of her own free will; that she cared for me, loved me? Even you couldn't lie like that, good at that sort of thing as you are. You knew she hated me!"
"My dear boy." said the major, more in sorrow than in anger, "this is the relatives chalk an announcement

Sarsaparilla. Your doc-

morning, and I won't have her name ON OUTCOME OF BIG FIGHT SPORTING MEN ARE DIVIDED

Some Expect Britt's Science ents. Landers, who boxes like Britt, hit Nelson repeatedly about the face and peeled the skin off the end of his the Dane's Stamina.

agreement of Jeffries to serve has many rounds. rought interest back to the betting on he lightweight battle between Britt

At their training quarters the men are working hard. Jimmy Britt put in better head. early this morning on the road. He is not far from the required weight, being now around the 136 mark. His George Hildebrand—Britt has the work from now on will be calculated to best batting average and will win. work from now on will be calculated to reduce his weight gradually to 133.

Danny Danziger, of the Olympic Club, championship easily. some warm ones on Britt and received can go all day. corkers in return, being twice dropped to the mat. Johnny Frayne and Tiv Kreling also sparred with Jimmy. Nelson did not make a good show-nose. In the clinches Landers blocked Nelson's left cleverly, holding it a foot out of harm's way, precisely as Britt did in his first fight with the Dane. Landers and others, however, say the San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 7. — Settle- Dane's short-arm jolts hurt severely, nent of the referee question by the and that no man can endure them for

There is a great diversity of opinion and Nelson at Colma. It is astonish- the outcome of the fight. Most of the ing, however, how little betting there is, considering the great interest that track contingent and baseball fains is manifested in the fight. There is favor Britt, because of his superior plenty of Britt coin waiting to be covered, but Nelson's partisans appear slow to take it up at odds of 10 to 7.

If avor Britt, because or his superior science, but there is a big following that banks on the stamina and bull strength of the Dane, and will back It is thought they are waiting for the odds to drop to 10 to 6, or even to 2 Here are a few expressions of opinion:

Henry Harris, baseball manager-I Jimmy Whalen-Nothing to it but Hildebrand-Britt has the put on the gloves with Britt. It was a hot bout, in which Danziger landed big cinch. He has the stamina and Dick Speakman-Britt is Sysonby. Billy Humphreys—Britt's in twentyfine rounds. Don't see how he can lose Joe Quinn-I think there is nothing ng, although a big crowd was at his to it but Britt. He is a better ring "gym." Fred Landers, Bob Lundle and general and boxer, and I look for him Ray Stone boxed with Nelson, and to put Nelson out of business in fifteen each seemed able to hit him at will.

STRAIGHT HEATS IN TWO EVENTS DRAWING TO CLOSE

Port Huron, Sept. 7.—Today's racing consisted of a 2:35 pace, purse $400; a 2:30 League pennant race of 1905 is rapidrot, purse $400, a free-for-all, purse $400, ly drawing to a close. With less than Monroe, Mich., being the winner. ed by Mrs. J. Moore, of Williamstown, tion. The running race was won by Sister Kate, Buffalo, the winner of the pennant last owned by Sherman, of Detroit, Sum- year, would figure as a strong contend-2:35 Pace

Gauntlett, Milan. Mack Wilkes, H. Trudell, Tilbury. 2 2 3 3 Beauty Wilkes, H. Gray, Monroe. 5 5 2 . 1 1 1 or purchase. Harry, . Archibald & Ard-. 4 3 4 Chrissie M., S. McPhail, Porter's Hill, Ont. 3 Attribells, J. Glassgord, Chatham, ds Sydenham Stock Farm, Wallaceburg

Time-2:15½, 2:19, 2:16½, General George, Harry Gray, Mon-West, W. J. Keating.

Parker, Beattie Bros., Wingham. Cyroc, Thomas Wynne, Detroit... Time-2:2414, 2:2414, 2:2414. Gale, Mrs. J. Moore, Williamstown. 2 Gold Standard, G. Castle, Chicago... 1 Ragtime, H. L. Morris, Vassar... 3

Lee J., W. O. Goodwin, Flint... Time-2:20, 2:15½, 2:19½. Running race—Sister Kate, Sherman, Detroit, 1: Glenmore, S. Arnold, Blenheim, ; Dutch Frigate, R. A. Wilson, Hamilton,

An interesting and exciting feature at today's meeting was a matched automobile race for a purse of $50 between Sam Hitchcock, of Sarnia, and J. Yokom, of Port Huron. The distance was two miles, and the race was wor by Hitchcock. and the race was won by Hitchcock.

New York, Sept. 7. - Hamburg Belle, the 2 to 5 favorite, easily won the Flight stakes at Sheepshead Bay today, scoring her second victory in the sides having the work necessary to the conducting of a good ball team, have a number of financial obligations to meet trot won all three neats and was never headed. Stein captured the three last heats and the race in the 2:10 pace, the strong finish of the horse being a feature of the meeting. Summary: ime was the same as last year, 1:25. Yankee Consul. Roseben and Neweyes are on fire. So you've come, have eyes are on fire. So, with the troubled waters means to subdue to any time. Handled to the elbow. That unusual interest attaches to them. Han usual interest attaches to them. Hamburg eyes eyes are on fire. So, on the follow eyes are on fire. So, on the outcome of the matches, both the outcome of the matches, on the outcome of the matches, on the outcome of the matches, on the outcome of the matches

> THE TURF. YESTERDAY'S WINNERS. At Sheepshead Bay-Mintia 8 to 1,

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 7. — The death of the mare Sadie Mac, which occurred in the fourth heat of the $10,000 Charin the fourth heat of the $10,000 Charter Oak stake race here yesterday, was due to enlargement of the heart. The THORNTONS SCORED WELL. London, Sept. 7. - The Thornton ricketers were all out for 282 in their A CHALLENGE FOR THE CUP.

CRICKET.

Nelson apparently devoted himself to Mike Asheim—There is nothing to it playing for the stomach of his oppon-but Britt. EASTERN SEASON

Toronto, Sept. 7. - The Eastern There were heavy curtains of art hoarsely. "Someone's been deceiving ed by E. Gauntlett, of Milan, in three cession, as it has done nearly all season. Many fans pick Jersey City to three weeks of the schedule to be comson. Many fans pick Jersey City to The 2:30 trot was won in three straight win the pennant, with Baltimore sec eats, General George, owned by Gray, ond and Providence third. Many had thought that Providence's chances of the best while The free-for all was won by Gale, own-others made Baltimore as their seleclanding the rag to be of the best, while None appeared to believe that er because the champions had lost several of their best players by draft

> The Newarks are almost sure to finish in the first division, as they now lead Buffalo by over 50 points. The Bisons are playing poor ball and finish the season on the road, while the Sailors will play more than two-thirds of their remaining games at home. The eastern division clubs have demonstrated a marked superiority over the teams of the western end of the circuit. All of the eastern clubs are n the first division. Aside from the battle royal between Jersey City and Baltimore for first place, and the fight for the lead in the second division be tween Buffalo and Montreal, the status of the other clubs appears to be already fixed. Baltimore still has a chance to beat out Jersey City. Providence's only chance of landing the flag is for Jersey City and Baltimore both to develop losing streaks. probability, therefore, is that the Grays will finish third. Toronto has probability, last place sure, without any serious contention.

There have been an extraordinarily large number of postponed games this schedules to a considerable degree.

BASEBALL.

SARNIA TEAM DISBANDED. excellent ball team this summer, but the patronage of the citizens was not forthcoming, and the management, besides having the work recovery to the control of the citizens was not an easy win. Kid Shay, in the 2:14 Providence Batteriestrot won all three heats and was never badded. Stain continued the three last

DOUBLE-HEADER TOMORROW. Yankee Consul, Roseben and New-Mown Hay were withdrawn, leaving the Hildreth entry, Burleigh and Raby Water, and Lady Amelia, to measure as Ward nines of the Wholesale As the championship depends bid Water, and Lady Amelia, to measure strides with the Paget filly. Hamburg Belle was played heavily at the contemporary of the wholesale League. As the championship depends El Mitargo, b. g. (Lasell)... 7 5 3 beat Little Scout a head in the Russet handicap, 1½ miles on turf. Three fav-lett, first base; Fitzgerald, second base; N. McConnell, third base; Campbell shortstop; Gives, left field; Roberts. center field; Singleton, right field.

FAMOUS EX-PITCHER DYING. Monongahela, Pa., Sept. 7.-"Jocko" Dick Roberts 7 to 5, Hamburg Belle 2 Menefee, the former Chicago National to 5. D'Arkle 5 to 1, Pretension 6 to 1, League pitching star, and at present At Fort Erie - Tressachs 3 to 1, jal Hospital here, with a fractured mayor of Monessen, lies in the Memor-Capitano 2½ to 1, Annie Alone 2 to 1, Alma Garda 9 to 5, The Four Hundred 6 to 1, Sweet Jane even.

At Latonia—Phiora 25 to 1, Princess Orna 8 to 5, Nominee 7 to 5, America and was considered when he quit the Latonia—Phiora 25 to 1, Princess Orna 8 to 5, Nominee 7 to 5, America and was considered when he quit the Latonia—Phiora 25 to 1, Princess Orna 8 to 5, Nominee 7 to 5, America and was considered when he quit the latenatic player of the state of the prince II. 18 to 5, Frank Bell 7 to 1, Hoi National League the wealthiest player in the business. He is director in many Bonnie Mc, br. m. (Benyon)ds banks along the Monongahela

EASY WIN FOR INGERSOLL. stock boy in the pitcher's box, and 2:10 class, pacing, 3 in 5, purse $1,-Ingersoll could have made 40 runs if 000they had extended themselves. As it Stein, b. g., by Joe Dailey ... 6 1 1 was they fattened up their batting Ben F., b. g. (Deryder) ...1 2 3 7 6 averages considerably. It is probable Texas Rooker, b. g. (Mc-

To be present the course of the C. L. A., announces that the revival tour in America. Mr. Dawson, in the junior series, will be played in Lindsay on Felday.

To will tell you why he present tell you was a second to present tell you was a second te Thinking of Materials for Your Fall Garments?

Don't think any longer, but act. Come to the store, ask the man behind the counter to show you every piece of new goods he has in stock.

THEN DO YOUR THINKING.

You will be rather puzzled probably-won't know which to choose. You will want nearly every piece you see. A wide assemblage of Chiffon Finished Broadcloths-beauties every one-very popular now for tailored suits.

Those fashionable smart Scotch Plaids, for skirts and dresses, few can resist them -and they are decidedly the fashion.

Then there's Chiffon Venetians, Rox Armures, Cheviots, English Tweed, Imported Suitings and scores of beautiful fancies for dresses and gowns. It will take you a day to look them all over. Come in as often as you can spare the time and do not miss any part

The price will cause you no worry, the highest are low comparatively.

New Norfolks and Golfers.

These cosy garments are ideal for present wear.

NEW NORFOLK JACKETS-Double knit, full sleeves, in cardinal, navy, brown and Fall Underwear Is Here.

Both the new stocks of Woolen Underwear and Flannelette Underwear are here, marked off and ready for selling. It is apparent to everyone that the new garments are better than ever. Fair visitors can get their winter supplies.

Boys' School Suits -- Mothers Will Like Them.

Mother will like the suits-and the values. Hardly know which they like the Boys' New Norfolk Suits, heavy tweeds for fall and winter. Boys will find some trouble in wearing them out. For boys 5 to 12 years......$2.75

Norfolk Suits for older boys up to 15,

Boys' Three-Piece Tweed Suits, great wearers for school, quite a variety of patterns, worth $3.50 and $4. All sizes$2.95 New Tweed Overcoats, satin lined, sizes 4 to 9. Unheard-of value

J. H. Chapman & Co

ROOKER PACED MONTREAL TOOK FASTEST HEAT TWO FROM BUFFALO

Ewen Up, Got in the Money at Hartford.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 7. - The 2:12 trot furnished the sport of the day at the Charter Oak Grand Circuit meet Montreal today, Harrison Wilkes winning. The futurity for pacers was disappointing, and Raub. as the horses broke repeatedly. In the Buffalo (second game)first heat, Easter Lily and Bonolet ran Montreal SARNIA TEAM DISBANDED.

Sarnia, Sept. 7. — The Sarnia ball the way and were distanced, and the second heat proved easy for Miss Adbell, who won first and third money.

At Jersey City—

> 2:12 class, trot, 3 in 5, $1,000-Harrison Wilkes, br. s., by Brignol Wilkes (Cox- 3 2 1 1

pacing division, $2,500-Miss Adbell, b. m., by Adbell-Lucelle (Bowerman) Easter Lily, b. m. (Murphy)ds Bonolet, br. m. (Benyon)

.....ds

Time, 2:13¼, 2:18. Miss Adbell gets first and third Toronto Hartford Futurity, trotting division. $8.500. 2 in 3-Bon Voyage, b. s., by Expedition (Gerrity) Phantom. blk. s. (Deryder)4 Silence, b. s. (Thomas)2 Directe, br. m. (Daly)3

Nutmeg Stakes, 2:14 trot, 3 in 5, $2,

Miss Georgia, br. m. (Ger-

Canadian Horse, With Mc- The Second Thirteen-Innings Game at Boston With Athletics - Who Won? IN THE EASTERN. At Buffalo (first game)-Batteries-Yerkes and McManus; Laroy

..0 0 0 0 2 1 0 2 0-5 Batteries-Clarkson and McAuley; Putt nann and Jacklitsch. Umpire, Conway. Attendance, 1,200. At Baltimore-Baltimore000111010-4 2 Newark . Batteries-Mason and Hearne; Fertsch

Hesterfer and Shea. Umpire, Egan. Attendance, 1,231. At Rochester (first game)

Newark Buffalo

Carthy. Attendance, 1,000. At Washington (first gam

Washington 0 0 2 0 3 0 1 5 *-11 12 New York...... 0 0 0 3 1 2 0 0 0-6 9 Swift B., b. g. (A. McDonald) .. 2 2 3 and Heydon; Orth, Powell and Kleinov Batteries-Patten At Washington (second game)-Washington 0 2 3 0 0 0 2 3 *-10 10 Batteries—Townsend and Knoll: Good-Hogg and McGuire. Umpire, Sheridan Attendance, 6,412.

AMERICAN STANDING. Time, 2:101/2 2:08%, 2:09, 2:09%, 2:111/2. Batteries—McGinnity and Bresnahan Young and Needham. Attendance, 8,000.

Attendance, 1,964. At Pittsburg-Walker and Schlei. Umpire, Klem. Attendance, 3,012. NATIONAL STANDING.

Brooklyn

TO SINGLE SCHEDULE Toronto, Sept. 7.-The London Rugby Club, in a letter to Secretary Woodworth, of the O. R. F. U., this morning, objected to Hamilton and Toronto were play-either a single or a double schedule, as Hamilaon and Toronto wish McMaster University will enter a junior team in the O. R. F. U., besides having one in the inter-ing a double one. They have submitted a schedule for consideration, and are willing to play mediate Collegiate series.

LONDON OBJECTS

÷

STEAMERS ARRIVED. Sept. 7.—At New York—Nord America, rom Naples; Patricia, from Hamburg.
At Glasgow—Corean, from Boston. At London-Hibernian, from Montreal.
At Havre-La Touraine, from New York.
At Liverpool-Tunisian, from Montreal. At Quebec-Lake Manitoba, from Live At Father Point-Manchester City, from

IT IS TO THE ADVANTAGE OF EVERY HOUSEKEEPER IN CANADA T.O USE

Magic Baking Powder. Gillett's Perfumed Lye. Imperial Baking Powder. Gillett's Cream Tartar. Royal Yeast Cakes. Gillett's Clammoth Blue. Magic Baking Soda.

Gillett's Washing Crystal MADE FOR OVER 50 YEARS. (ESTABLISHED 1952)