> Rev. Richard Whiting, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Sunday night ommenced a week's special evangelistic services. His subject was "Burn-ing the Bridges Behind." He spoke if the necessity of a clean-cut confession. There was not need to try and serve God and Mammon.

"Come out on God's side, and stay," he warned his hearers. "Nothing short of a clean break from the world would result in any good, and the sooner the bridges behind were cut lown, the better. Tonight his subject will be "Well Vishing Is Not Well Doing." The hoir will be in attendance.

The three-weeks' evangelistic camat the Wellington Street Metholist Church was concluded at the serices on Sunday. Over 100 converts oined the church as a result of this pecial work. A baptismal service LECTROPLATING - NICKEL OUR was also held in the morning, fifteen having this rite administered to them. Mr. Crossley preached two strong vangelistic sermons. He warned the converts that they would be beset with many temptations, but to perseere in their resolve to lead a Christian life. It was good policy to padlle one's own canoe in everything else ut religion. It cannot be done.

In the evening, he spoke on the unctions of the church. The organ-saved, he would die in his sins. The church was for man's good, and ah should join it. In the morning service at the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Mr. Gay spoke on "Divine Restraint." In North America the world was with the ole. The rapid growth of weal lucky strikes, the possibilities of acquiring riches quickly, were having their effect on all classes of people, and the fever was in -men's veins. Even some of the missionaries of the church in the west had become infected, and were leaving their posts to engage in making money. The divine estraint should be exercised. God had better work for men than getting rich. Each had his work to do for the vival, said the speaker. Rev. Canon Tucker, rector of St. Paul's Cathedral, was the preacher at St. Luke's Church, Broughdale, Sunday night. "He Feedeth Upon Ashes" was the subet chosen by Rev. G. B. Sage, BLACKBURN & WEEKES, BARRIS-TERS, solicitors. notaries, etc., 124 Carling street. G. N. Weekes; H. S. never intended for it," said Dr. Sage. upon us that a large part of our community forget that the soul requires Day as though it was not an occasion for the feeding of the soul. Too many feed upon ashes—material things—rather than upon the Bread of Life. It is a good thing for any community to be a church-going community." Dr. Sage also pointed out that while the Israelites were given to idol worship, shippers of the gods of this world; and
