nation in the world, and it would be a reflection on our own troops not to admit that the Germans are showing extraordinary bravery. Two years ago they had a great chance to win. They still are exceedingly strong in engines of destruction, but we at least are even in this respect now, and I can-not help feeling that our men individually are better. So we hope to have a distinct margin of superiority.

Everyone Up to 60 Years.

"We are able to continue to increase the arms, munitions and food of our roops, and we will get more men it needed, but no concrete proposal has been made yet to increase the age limit. I cannot say such suggestion finds me unprepared, as before I came to the way office I came to the war office I announced my pol man in the country under the age of 60, so that each could be placed in his proper place either fighting, making munitions or carrying on the ordinary business of the country. icy was in favor of mobilizing ever

"Recent raids of the military on stations and places of amusement pretty plainly have proved there are very few slackers left, and that the eligible men under the present compulsion law either are in the army or are properly badged for other work.

I found everyone at the front cheerful. You may rest assured the offen-sive will be continued. If there seems to be a lull it will be interesting to make a study of the German casualty list. "Mr. Boche' will not be allowed
