

W. O. R.'s Win While Sarnia Tunnel and St. Thomas United Vets Tie in Injured Cup

MAPLE LEAFS PUT OUT BY 2-0 SCORE

Tunnel City Equalize At St. Thomas Just Before Whistle.

AT ST. THOMAS.
United Vets, 1; Tunnel City, 1.
AT LONDON.
W. O. R., 2; Maple Leafs, 0.

W. O. R.'s defeated Maple Leafs 2-0 in their semi-final injured players' cup tilt Saturday. W. O. R. fielded their full team on Saturday against the Maple Leafs at Carling Heights. Weather conditions were bad. Rain continued during the whole of the game. The game was late in starting on account of the junior game, but from the kick-off the Black and White's vanguard got away with a rush and tested the Leafs' defence, which ended in a shot from Turner going wide. From the goal kick the Leafs, with the wind in their favor, took play to midfield, where Dennis received nicely and drove hard for Perkins, who received and fed Woods on the left wing, the latter driving a terrific shot to the center, which Turner headed nicely to Ridley, the latter opening the scoring with a goal. From the kick-off the Leafs booted high, but the sound defence of the Black and White was at all times safe. Taylor, the W. O. R. right wing, broke away in fine style, but was relieved by W. Perkins, who was playing a remarkable game at left back for the second year. The latter played for the G. W. V. A., and although being out of the game so long, he still has some of the younger ones guessing. The latter remained around the Leafs' goal, with the Black and White trying hard to score.

After Lemons.
After Lemons the Leafs got going, and Colvin broke away nicely and took a shot at goal, which Johnnie Nudd saved, and this was the only time the latter was called upon during the game. Play continued around infield for a short while until Short received and fed Ridley, who passed to Taylor. The latter forced a corner. The same player, taking the corner kick, drove well for A. Perkins to net for the second goal. W. O. R. line-up—Nudds, Ashton, Dennis, Herring, Croft, Short, Taylor, Turner, Ridley, Perkins, Doods.
A. Noble, referee.

SARNIA CATCH UP.
Tunnel City equalized just a minute before time at St. Thomas. The teams agreed to play in Sarnia next Saturday, and the winners will meet W. O. R. the following week.

THE BUSINESSMEN'S VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE, which has been organized in the Y. M. C. A., got off to a good start Friday night in the first game when two exhibition games were played. Every thing is now set for the commencement of the league games, and it is expected that the play, the winner of the league is going to have its work cut out.

In the first game Friday night the "Y" aggregation defeated the Rotary Hubs by a close score, and in the second tussle the Rotary aggregation, with their regular players, were defeated after a hard fight.

The opening game of the House Volleyball League was postponed until Friday night, Nov. 24.

R. M. C. Beat St. Mikes in Final Tilt

New Champs Had Irish Attack Held Safe—Lebel Stars.

Kingston, Nov. 18.—St. Mike's were unable to hold their two-point lead over R. M. C. here this afternoon, and the cadets emerged intercollegiate intermediate champions with a 13 to 2 win. The field was soggy and only a small crowd witnessed the struggle. One route for R. M. C. was the only scoring in the first period. Price ripped around the end for a try just at the end of second quarter, which went unconverted, and with a dead-line kick earlier, made the quarter end 7 to 0 for R. M. C.

A safety touch in the third quarter gave St. Mike's their two points. R. M. C. tried a placement kick half through the fourth quarter, which went wide for a point. After a St. Mike's fumble, Hughes crashed around the end for 30-yard run and a touch, which went unconverted.

The line-up:
R. M. C.—Flying wing, Price; halves, Hughes, Hamilton, B. G. Carr-Harris; fullbacks, Matthews, snap, Morris; backs, Lane, Voss, middle, Brown, Burley; outside, Jones, R. M. Carr-Harris; subs, Macdonald, J. Hall, Smith, Richardson, Black and Kirkpatrick.

CARDINAL MERCIER IS ILL WITH INFLUENZA

Brussels, Nov. 18.—Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, is ill. He is suffering from a bad case of influenza, which in itself is not considered by the attending physicians as alarming, but there is some fear by them of complications which, on account of the age of the prelate, might give his case a more serious turn.

The cardinal caught a cold at the ceremony of installing Belgium's "unknown soldier" on Nov. 11, and was forced to take to bed the following day.

Lawless, D.S.O., president of the association, and Staff-Sergeant Burns, chairman of the boxing committee, propose to take in the boxing tournament put on by the Elgin Regiment at St. Thomas on Nov. 27, when they will get a line on some of the milt artists who will perform here on Dec. 23.

The above cut shows a crop of tobacco on the Redacres Farm in the Rodney-West Lorne district, which is the center of the development of tobacco in Aldboro Township, Elgin County. The growers of this district have gone extensively into flue-curing of tobacco, which produces a much better product than when cured by sun in the field. The flue-cured tobacco industry was introduced into Aldboro Township, Elgin County, in 1920 with a plantation of four acres. In 1921 10 acres were planted, and this year there was over 70 acres, all of which is now harvested and cured. From the first the crop has been an unqualified success and has graded very high. The soil formation is ideal, and the county is not subjected to the damaging droughts so disastrous to the crop in some other districts. The quick development of the industry in this district, coupled with the extensive intensive work in early tomatoes, onions and small fruit that is steadily increasing, is destined to make it one of the wealthiest and most progressive communities in the province.

Says Psychology Doctor's Best Aid In Diagnosing Ills of Modern Life

London, Nov. 18.—Lord Dawson of Penn., the celebrated physician, presiding at the annual meeting of the Medical Society of London a few days ago, called attention to the growing strain of modern life, owing to the advances made by the technical sciences and the wear and tear of modern civilization.

It is quite true, steam and electricity have not merely quickened physical movement, but their accelerating effect has operated in every department of life and manners. Not only are we always in a hurry, but we should be ashamed to admit that it was otherwise. Our haste is further increased by the greater rapidity of communication.

The effect of the instruments of modern civilization is that the nervous disposition becomes accentuated, and brain and nerves become more sensitive.

The bad effect of the over-stimulus of modern civilization are not always apparent, because we are, after all, so constituted that we gradually adapt ourselves to influences which our forefathers, if they had been subjected to them, would have considered "nervous-racking."

Such adaptation of the race, however, takes time and cannot be accomplished in one generation. When bad health comes to the exhausted man or slaving woman, it is seldom that the heart, stomach, liver, or any other organ—or even the nerves—want treating, but their minds.

The modern doctor, therefore, must be a psychologist as well as a physician; that is to say, while not neglecting any actual physical disturbance, he must probe into the depths of the soul of his patient and bring to light the suppressed sorrow, grief, anxiety, passion, veiled aim and wild impulse, which he may have kept from his friends and acquaintances—and often from his own self; and he must give such aids pertaining to the hygiene of mind as fit the individual case.

This charge if such action is warranted. The court referred to allegations that Greig was married to Sarah Turndegren Dye, a Chicago divorcee, while he had a wife and eight children residing in Toronto, Ont., and to conflict in Greig's answers to many questions while on the witness-stand.

Request Further Action.
Mrs. Sarah Greig, who was married to "the Earl" at Sault Ste. Marie, in January, 1921, and who assumed the title "Countess of Dunblane" was with the defendant throughout the trial. Her family is reported to have furnished the money for his defence. When the Toronto women appeared in the "Countess" discredited the report Greig had previously been married. She has resided since her marriage in "Dunblane Manor," an estate purchased by Greig near Cheboygan.

The court's announcement that he would request further action in Michigan against Greig probably will forestall any action by authorities in Canada to have him turned over to them immediately his term is finished. He is wanted in Ontario on a charge of fraudulently dealing in securities.

The information was brought out during his trial that he is also sought by authorities of Moose Jaw, Sask., and by Scotland Yard.

CHEAPSIDE MAN HURT IN FALL FROM WAGON

Special to The Advertiser.
Cheapside, Nov. 18.—Charles Bush, who resides near here, was badly injured when he was thrown from the wagon as the horses he was driving bolted. His father, who was with him at the time, escaped injury.

The son received a severe cut in the head and was badly shaken up. They were repairing the road at the time of the accident, and it is believed that the horses became frightened at some object lying in the road.
