Son of Peter McArthur Weds Popular Guelph Girl

Miss Dorothy Campbell Day Becomes the Bride of Daniel Carman McArthur of Toronto.

A wedding which has a Canadian-wide interest took place in Guelph yesterday, when Dorothy Campbell Day, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George Day of Guelph, became the bride of Daniel Carman McArthur, son of Mr. Peter McArthur, the well-known Canadian writer, and Mrs. McArthur of Appin. The Rev. Henry Irvine of Norfolk Street Church performed the ceremony, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Arnold street.

The wedding was the culmination of a college romance, the bride and groom having met in their freshmen year at Guelph, the bride attending MacDonald College and the groom being a student at Ontario Agricultural College.

Promptly at 4 o'clock the bride appeared on the arm of her father, looking lovely in her nuptial robe of white crepe de chine and chintilly lace, and wearing the groom's gift, a necklace of pearls. Her hair was wreathed with orange blossoms and she carried a bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Drake, the bride's sister, acted as bridesmaid, wearing a simple gown of peach-colored crepe de chine and carrying a colonial bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. McKellar McArthur of Appin. The bride's bridesmaids were Misses Dorothy Campbell, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George Day of Guelph, and Miss Elizabeth McArthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McArthur of Appin. The groom's groomsmen were Mr. and Mrs. McKellar McArthur of Appin, and Mr. and Mrs. McKellar McArthur of Appin.

The house itself was a profusion of flowers. A reception followed the ceremony, a buffet luncheon being served. Later Mr. and Mrs. McArthur left for Muskoka, where they will spend their honeymoon, the bride traveling in a smart navy suit and hat to match. On their return they will reside at Sunnyside, Toronto. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome brooch, and to the groomsmen a pair of cufflinks. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Peter McArthur and Miss Elizabeth McArthur of Appin; Miss C. Waters of Toronto; Mrs. Sunley Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Zavitz, P.W. and Mrs. W. H. Graham, all of Guelph; Mrs. Barlow of Brighton; Mr. and Mrs. Fulton of Luckham; Miss Grace Woodyatt, Miss Katharine Graham, Miss Carie McKel, Miss Catharine Stuart, Mr. Ward, all of Guelph; Miss Jean Hunt, Mr. Edward Chesley, Mr. M. J. Adams, Mr. Winters, all of Toronto; and Mr. R. J. Churchill of London.

June WeddingsPRATT-SHAW.

Hyatt Avenue Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, when Mary Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Shaw, was married to Charles Pratt of Almont. Mr. Rev. Jewett performed the ceremony. The church was artistically decorated with summer flowers, and as the bride party entered the church, Miss Rose Ashby, who also played during the ceremony. Little Miss Gladys Morris, dressed in pink and blue, acted as bridesmaid, wearing a simple gown of peach-colored crepe de chine and carrying a colonial bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The groom was attended by

SHILLINGFORD-TAYLOR.

The Hill Street Baptist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, when Muriel Ade Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Taylor, was married to Donald Shillingford, also of this city. Rev. J. S. Johnston performed the ceremony. The church was artistically decorated with roses and wild flowers, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Stanley Drake as the bride party entered the church. The bride wore a gown of white crepe with a wedding veil arranged with pearl ornaments, and she carried white carnations. Miss Erma Taylor, a sister of the bride, and Miss Alice Drake acted as bridesmaids, the latter wearing a pink canton crepe with a white hat, and Miss Taylor another sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Mr. C. M. DeWeaver was best man. During the signing of the register, Mrs. W. Hunter sang "Because." The ushers were Messrs. George Harris, Frank Brown, Charles Hunt and Paul Lewis. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the bride's home from tables decorated with roses. The bride's train was a blue canton crepe dress with a corsage of roses.

and her grandmother, Mrs. Irons, was gowned in blue canton crepe with American Beauty roses. Mr. and Mrs. Shillingford left on a honeymoon to Detroit, the bride traveling in a blue tricot suit with a blue laffeta hat and gray gloves. The guests from out-of-town were Miss Irene White, Evanston, Ill.; Mrs. Mary Brown, Wilberforce, Ontario; Mrs. A. Grayson, Toronto; Mrs. Thomas Taylor, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Brown and family of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson, Jun. of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. MacQueen, Detroit; Mrs. Riley and Mrs. J. Johnston of Detroit.

KITCHEN-STEELE.

One of the most charming of June weddings took place at 3 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, June 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, 132 Waterloo street, when the bride's sister, Miss E. Josephine Steele, second daughter of Mrs. Steele, and the late Peter Steele, of this city, formerly of Toronto, were united in marriage with Arthur Harold Kitchen, also of this city, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kitchen of Niagara Falls. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Geo. T. Walters of the Wellington Street Methodist Church, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, took place in the living-room, made fragrant with pink and white blossoms, the same color scheme being carried out in the dining-room, where a dainty wedding luncheon was later served.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Jas. Smith, wore a graceful gown of gray canton crepe with facings of sand color, gray suede slippers, and a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. Mrs. Steele, mother of the bride, was gowned in black silk, Mrs. Smith wearing a pretty frock of sand color crepe, and Mrs. Kitchen, who, with Mr. Kitchen came up from Niagara Falls for the wedding, wore a handsome gown of dark blue canton crepe. To make the ceremony doubly interesting, immediately following the marriage service, the christening of William Marshall, "Billy" Smith, nephew of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, took place. The happy couple left on the 4:30 C.P.R. train for Toronto and Hamilton, later motoring to Niagara Falls and Buffalo. Mrs. Kitchen donning a sand color wrap and white sport hat for traveling. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen will reside at 387 Simcoe street.

FOX-PULLEYBLANK.

One of the prettiest of the June weddings took place Wednesday afternoon at Ridout Street Methodist Church, when Agnes Jessie, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Pulleyblank of St. Marys was married to Rowland M. Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fox, Linwood street. Rev. J. A. Agnew performed the ceremony.

The wedding music was played by the organist, Mr. W. Gordon Scott, and Miss Margaret Watson. Hazel McEwan acted as ushers, the latter wearing white voile, with touches of pink, and Miss Watson with a gown of white tricotette and a white hat. The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, Samuel Pulleyblank of St. Marys, wore a lovely gown of white canton crepe, with orange blossoms forming a bandeau from which a tulle veil fell. Miss Minnie Wheeler acted as bridesmaid, dressed in a pretty gown of pink voile, with a picture hat to match, and carried pink roses. Mr. E. Noble was best man.

Roses and daisies artistically arranged decorated the church and were also used at the home of the groom's parents, where a reception was held. Six girl friends of the bride assisted in the dining-room. They were: Misses Clara Parkwell, Margaret Watson, Helen Mills (St. Marys), Veda Oliver (St. Marys), Mrs. Squires and Miss Laura Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox left to spend their honeymoon in Belleville, the bride traveling in a blue tailored suit, with gray hat and gloves. Upon their return they will reside at 28 Linwood avenue.

DINGMAN-GRIFFIN.

St. Thomas, June 28.—"Gladfield," the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Griffin, Stanley street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at halfpast 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when their daughter, Helen Ruth, was married to George Donald Dingman, of London, Ont., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dingman, of Toronto. Rev. Wilfred F. Gaetz of First Methodist Church, officiated at the ceremony, which took place in the drawing-room, lovely with larkspur, daisies and roses. As the opening notes of the wedding march were played by the London Harpers, the bride descended the stairs and entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She looked very lovely in her wedding gown of white satin canton with girdle of orange blossoms, and caught at the shoulders with pearls. She wore silver slippers and the train was of silver tissue, lined with softest pink, while her veil was of Limerick lace, arranged in the form of a coronet and caught at the back with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. W. F. L. Edwards was her sister's matron of honor, pretty in orchid georgette with hat to match, and carrying a shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses. The ribbon-bearers were Misses Frances and Isobel Edwards, who wore quaint white muslin dresses, which the ribbons were attached. Mr. Arthur Dingman of Amherstburg was the bride's groomsmen, and the bride and groom received in the drawing-room, the bride's mother receiving with them. Mrs. Griffin was lovely in a gown of gray georgette beaded in silver and blue with gray hat and a corsage bouquet of roses, while Mrs. V. S. Dingman wore a handsome dress of gold brocade, brown canton crepe with cocoa brown georgette hat trimmed with unguined ostrich tips, and a corsage bouquet of Sunset roses.

Following the wedding breakfast, the happy young couple left on a motor trip to Muskoka, the bride donning for the trip a smart hen-stitched gray French-crepe costume with small gray hat to match and navy roshigara crepe wrap. On their return they will spend the rest of the summer at the bride's home, 46 Stanley street, leaving in the fall to take up their residence in London. The popular young bride and groom were the recipients of many very beautiful gifts. The groom's gift to the bride was a platinum wrist watch; to the best man, gold cuff links; to the matron of honor, a silver vanity case, and to the ribbon-bearers, pearl pins.

HAWKINS-DURDLE.

St. Thomas, June 28.—A very pretty wedding took place at St. John's Church, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Velma Shelton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durdle, became the bride of Charles Hawkins, Gravel road. The Rev. P. N. Harding officiated at the ceremony. The bride, looking very lovely in her wedding gown of white satin crepe, trimmed with lace and adorned with silver buckles, entered the church to the strains of the Wedding March, played by J. W. Ferguson. The bride, who was attended by Mrs. E. Barrett, was given away by her father, Mr. Walter Durdle, Mr. H. McCurt was groomsmen. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Newsome of Aylmer, and Mr. and Mrs. Macguy of New Sarum. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was given for the 50 or 60 guests at the home of the bride's father, 71 Ross street. Among the many gifts to the bride was a silver tea service from the members of the St. Thomas police
