Ball-Tossers at Jacobs & Sparrow's.

Manager Franks and "Pete" Baker have combined in an invitation to the Toronto and Detroit ball-tossers to be at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House and they will occupy the boxes, which will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. A change of bill will be given, "Chris and Lena," in which Baker scored his first great success, forming the attraction. This play, with its incidental songs and dances, has lost none of its attractiveness.

The Boston Ideals To-night. To-night the famous Boston Ideals begin a three nights' engagement at the Grand Opera House. The company is a strong one Opera House. The company is a strong one and under the management of Col. Foster has achieved the most brilliant success from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Among the artists are Pauline L. Allemand, Emma Romeldi, Jenny Corea, Bella Tomlins, Frank Baxter, Signor Rudolphi, W. H. Mertins, Clement Bambridge and Signor Miranda. The orchestra is said to be one of the finest on the continent, the choruses strong and the costumes and scenery superb. For the first time in Toronto grand opera will be given at popular prices, viz., from 25c to $1. This of itself should fill the theatre to overflowing. The repertoire will be: To-night, "Lucia"; to-morrow night, "Rigoletto"; Saturday matinse, "Bohemian Giri"; Saturday evening, "Trovatore."

St. John is making a systematic effort to effect this object, one of their chief arguments being that with the streng competition now carried on between the United States and Canadian trunk lines for so large an intransift traffic as is now offering, it should become a matter of pride to every patriotic Canadian that at least one port on the Atlantic coast should be put in a position to compete with the United States seaports.

Mimico

The most conspicuous result of the Torontonian's ambition to go ahead is MIMICO. Planned for a busy, growing town, with several large factories, it promises more than any like place in Canada.

So much for the general fact. My business is to sell lots at MIMICO as reasonable as can be, in order to enlarge its interest and support. Sell all I have? Oh, no! I've a mind to keep some in reserve as an investment in the future.

Never mind what you read, look into MIMICO'S advantages for yourself, Ther
