

POETRY.

LABOR IS THE LOT OF ALL.

Ho! brother, is it time to toil,
With sweating brow, at Forge or loom,
Dost thou thy tread move the soil,
Or 'neath it yield in undaunted gloom?
What's to thy calling, monarch not
Nor wish to 'scape the 'sarching thrall,
Which binds the world with common knot,
For "Labor is the lot of all."

Even emerald kings enthroned who sit,
Have yon nations' helm to guide;
From prince to peasant, all admit,
To wear the yoke the artist cast aside;
Then, brother! with a cheerful heart
Obey the universal call
Gird up thy loins, act well thy part,
For "Labor is the lot of all!"
