

arrived in 1882. In 1884 the movement to Kamundongo began, and Messrs. Sanders and Fay went there to open the new station and build the mission home, Miss Sanders being the first white woman who had ever visited this place. In May, 1884, King Kwikwi, who had been most friendly to the missionaries, became prejudiced by bribes and false reports, and ordered the missionaries to leave his kingdom. The mission seemed to be broken up, but the Governor-General instituted an inquiry and the native kings were led to invite the missionaries to return.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders went back in November, 1884, and the other missionaries followed before long.

The first church was organized at Bailundu in 1887, and the second church at Kamundongo in 1889.

MY DEAR MRS. FREELAND,—Your letter of June 13th reached me by last mail.

Please extend to the ladies of the C.C.W.B.M. our sincere gratitude for their expression of loving sympathy with us. Our happy home was made more joyous by their word of good cheer, and kind wishes, for the welfare of the work to which we are bound by a thousand ties, and from which we have no desire to be separated so long as it is our Father's pleasure that we should remain here.

We rejoice and thank God for the prosperity of your Society and trust that the present year will witness greater results than any yet achieved.

"The Clara Wilkes Memorial School house" is now about thatched. We hope to have it opened for service on Xmas day. It is pronounced a fine building, for this country, by all who have seen it. "The M. A. Clarke cottages" are having their roofs put on, and will likely be finished about the same time as the school,

DEAR LOVED ONES,—Can you believe that I have been here seven weeks? It seems such a short time since I came, and yet I feel quite at home, and have become well acquainted with those here. I have had the boys' and girls' senior school all alone yesterday and to-day, for Mr. Currie has had quite a
