

COLLEGE NOTES.

REV. A. W. K. Herdman, of '94, has declined a call to Port Elgin and Shemogue.

REV. J. M. Fisher has resigned his charge at Lawrencetown.

WE are glad to see that Mr. Geo. Sutherland, who was confined to his room by illness, is able to attend classes again.

REV. J. R. Coffin, of Bloomfield, P. E. I., has received a call to West River and Green Hill, Pictou Co.

DURING the past few weeks we have been favored by visits from quite a number of clergymen. Among others were Revs. McLeod Harvey, ex-senior editor of the THEOLOGUE, John Murray, of Shubenacadie, H. R. Grant, of Trenton, Geo. McMillan, Clarence McKinnon, J. M. Fisher, J. P. Falconer, A. V. Morash, J. W. Falconer, as well as several of the city ministers.

THE annual meeting of the general students for the election of editors for the THEOLOGUE, and transaction of other business, takes place on Wednesday, 27th inst.

THE College Board held a meeting on the 6th inst. One important item of business was the appointment of a fourth Professor to the chair of New Testament Exegesis, the position now held by Rev. P. A. Falconer as Lecturer. Presbyteries were requested to make nominations before the next meeting of the Board. There is little doubt that the nominations will be unanimously in favor of the present incumbent, who, during the past three years has proven himself in every way competent to fill the position.

ON Sunday afternoon, February 17th, a public temperance meeting was held in the Temperance Hall, Cornwallis Street—Mr. J. B. Cropper occupied the chair, and addresses were given by Messrs. G. C. Robertson, A. M. Thompson, Robert Murray, and L. W. Parker. The meeting had not been well advertised,
