A PRAYER IN AFFLICTION.

"I will say unto God, Do not condemn me, show me wherefore thou contendest with me."—Job x 2.

FATHER in heaven, who art with me contending, O, hear my prayer, thou just, yet angry God! While low this spirit, in contrition bending Doth "Kiss thy rod."

Can't comm me not, but heed the voice of sighing, The burning drops that from thine eyes fall, And while, as suppliant I'm before thee lying, Hear thou my call.

And deign to show me kind, forgiving Father, Why 'tis so long since thou on me hast smiled, O, spurn not this request, but pity rather Thing erring child!

If I have sought to gain man's worthless favor, More than the praise which comes alone from heaven;

I mourn my folly for thy sake, O Saviour! Be it forgiven.

Or, if concealed an idol in this bosom, Paying devotion to a creature love, Let not the blight which hath destroyed hops's blossom Vain chastening prove.

Is it that I have used, as but abusing, The rich abundance which thy hand did pour, That now the humblest wants thou art refusing Which I implore?

If these offences from my view are hidden, Deep in the sacred chambers of my soul, Or any cherished love, by thee forbidden, There hath control—

Make me to know my sin, or my omission, And I will weep in penitence alone; Drink sorrow's cup, and say with meek submission, Thy will be done. [Scottish Guardian.]

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. A MOST MARVELOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS AFTER YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin of 70 Saint Mary's Street, Weymouth dated May 13th, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

SIR.—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed—Her agonies were distressing, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your Advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment, and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless without scum or scurf, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 33 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature. (Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS' OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG OF 30 YEARS' STANDING. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. A's, Builder of Gas Ovens of Kew-Street, your Haberdashery, dated May 31st, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

SIR.—I suffered for a period of 30 years from a bad leg the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works, accompanied by venereal symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated, yet in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact. (Signed) WILLIAM AUBS.

The truth of this statement can be verified by W. F England, Chemist, 13, Market Street, Huddersfield. A DREAFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH. Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penzance Kent, dated December 13th, 1850. To Professor Holloway.

DEAR SIR,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breasts for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having long for a cure, and being told that the leg must be amputated, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends. (Signed) FREDERICK TURNER

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE. Copy of a Letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturalist, residing at Newborough, near Hexham, dated May 15th, 1850. To Professor Holloway.

SIR.—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of my leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newcastle Infirmary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment I determined to try them, and in less than a month I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the Hay Harvest and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint. (Signed) JOHN FORFAR.

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis A. Tuck, of Brethons Letham Road, Edinburgh, dated April 25th, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

SIR.—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject from time to time to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and blistered to a great extent still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago she saw, in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years. (Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:— Bad Legs, Caucers, Scalds, Bad Breasts, Contracted and Stiff Nipples, Sore throats, Burns, Joints, Skin diseases, Blisters, Elephantiasis, Scabby, Bite of Mosquitoes, Fistulas, and Sand-Fly's Gout, Sore-heads, Coco Bay, Glandular Swellings, Tumours, Chilgo foot, Hings, Ulcers, Chilblains, Lumbago, Wounds, Chapped hands, Piles, Yaws, Corn (soft), Rheumatism.
