The Chicago Herald says:—"Disquiet and mistrust over the Bradstreet's set of statistics are increasing in trade. There has never been any great confidence in the correctness of the figures. Whenever chances of comparison have presented themselves the figures have been shown to be ridiculously astray. In a recent instance the San Francisco stocks were shown to be several millions out of the way. In other instances the stocks at New Orleans have been shown to be 50 per cent. out of the way.
