

Christmas Books

Circumstance

By S. Weir Mitchell

Author of "Dr. North and his Friends."

Cloth, $1.25

Few books of late have shown such grasp of life.—The Commonwealth.

It is more truly the novel of the year than 999 of the other claimants for that distinction.—Times Saturday Review.

Captain Ravenshaw

Or The Maid of Cheapside

By R. N. Stephens

Cloth, $1.25

A romance of Elizabethan London.

Splendidly bound in red and gold, well printed, and handsomely illustrated.—Toronto Saturday Night.

The Right of Way

By Gilbert Parker

Author of "Seats of the Mighty"

Cloth, gilt top, Library Edition, - $1.50

Cloth, gilt top, Maple Leaf Design, $1.50

Sixteen Full-page Illustrations

Brief Bits from the British Press

London Truth:—Of breathless interest.

The Outlook:—A powerful and moving novel.

Literary World:—So full of life and of real humanity, that even the reviewer, who reads so many novels, becomes absorbed in the emotions, failures and successes of Mr. Parker's hero.

Empire Review:—He has made French-Canada live for us as no other writer has ever dreamed to attempt.

Glasgow Evening News:—There is a general agreement that it is a veritable masterpiece—vivid, dramatic, absorbingly interesting.

St. James' Gazette:—Stirring, dramatic, fascinating.

The Graphic:—An undeniably powerful work.

The Crisis

By Winston Churchill

Author of "Richard Carvel"

Illustrations by Howard Chandler Christy

Cloth, $1.25

In "The Crisis" there is the same broad, free treatment which gave "Richard Carvel" its charm, but the later story shows a decided gain in force and reality.—Hamilton W. Mabie.

The Helmet of Navarre

By Bertha Runkle

Illustrations by Andre Castaigne

Cloth, $1.25

Really a remarkable achievement. In truth it would be hard to name in current fiction a more delightful piece of work.—Canadian Magazine.
