

importance of the discovery is that it shows the pre-histories to have been able to do this thing without the use of iron or bronze, a thing long doubted.

STILL ANOTHER MONUMENT.

RECENTLY, Mr. Gilkison, Indian Commissioner, and Chief Johnson, of the Six Nation Indians, accompanied by Senator Christie, Mr. Patterson, M.P., Mr. Charlton, M. P., and Mr. Cleghorn, of Brantford, presented His Excellency the Governor-General with an address, accompanied by two handsomely bound volumes of "The Life of Brant." The books bear the inscription—

PRESENTED TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE
MARQUIS OF LORNE, K. T. G. C. M. G.,
GOVERNOR-GENERAL
OF THE
DOMINION OF CANADA,
BY THE
SIX NATION INDIANS,
OJISWEKA,
4TH MARCH, 1879.

The address is enclosed in a handsome covering of bark work, having on its face a representation of a treaty of friendship between the Indians and English, in which the "Silver chain which never tarnishes" is represented as linking the two together.
