Costumes at the Horse Show.

On page 297 will be found some additional sketches of costumes worn at the Horse Show. No. 1 was in dark blue cloth, the jacket being cut away in a novel manner, and the blue color relieved by gold braiding. No. 2 was also in dark blue, with light satin waistcoat and was a very stylish tailor-made gown. No. 3 was in light grey cloth, with the long jacket, while the waistcoat was of dark slate colored velvet, forming a very pretty contrast against the grey. No. 4 was in dark brown cloth with large loose flecks of a dark brown all over the dress. No. 5 was a more elaborate costume, the blouse, elbow sleeves and pleated epaulettes being in grey crepon silk, as were also the jabot and neck-band. The wrists and scarf were in deep heliotrope bengaline silk and the frillings were in embroidered lisse. No. 6 was in pale grey, bands of darker grey velvet and trimmed with passementerie.

"The play last night wasn't realistic enough for me."
"What was the trouble?"
"You know that chap who was killed in the third act?"
"Yes."
"Well, I saw him on the street this morning."

ELSEWHERE in this issue we publish the particulars of a remarkable cure that fairly outrivals the celebrated case of John Marshall, of Hamilton, which created such a sensation throughout the country. The particulars of the case are vouched for by the Albany Evening Journal, recognized as the leading newspaper at the New York State capital and one of the leading papers of the United States. There is, therefore, no room to doubt that the particulars of the case are accurately and carefully set forth, in every respect true and must, therefore, prove of the deepest interest to our readers. We, therefore, commend the article to their careful perusal.

It was at a ball and the subject under discussion was vanity. A lady maintained that men men also were given somewhat to vanity.
"The men are ten times more vain than the ladies," she remarked.
"That's utterly impossible," said several gentlemen.
The subject was changed and a few minutes later the lady remarked:
"The handsomest man in the room has a spot on his white vest," whereupon every gentleman within hearing glanced down with a scared expression of countenance at his vest.

HAD 53 BOILS.
SUFFERED SEVERELY.

Mr. H. M. Lockwood, of Lindsay, Ont., whose portrait is shown above, is a well known Railway employee, and has lived in Lindsay for the past three years.

Mr. Lockwood was born and brought up in Hastings County, where he has many friends who will be glad to hear of his recovery from the trying complaint which afflicted him so severely. Mr. Lockwood writes as follows:

"I was terribly afflicted with boils, having no less than 53 in eight months, during that time I tried many remedies without relief, Doctors' medicine did not relieve me, in fact I could not get rid of them at all until I began using B.B.B. It completely cured me, and I have not had a boil since taking the first bottle. I write this to induce those afflicted with boils to try B.B.B. and get cured, for I am confident that but for Burdock Blood Bitters I would still have had those terrible boils, which shows plainly the complete blood cleansing properties of this medicine, because everything else that I tried failed.

A friend of mine who also suffered from boils, took one bottle by my advice and thanks to B.B.B. his boils all disappeared."

Yours truly,
H. M. LOCKWOOD,
Lindsay, Ont.
