

Some business travelers have to wait in a long queue for their baggage to come out.

And some are ready to take off with Air Canada.

When you are out on a business trip, you are expected to complete your schedule within a limited period of time.

Going from one place to another and yet another by air should be done as speedily as possible.

Flying Air Canada's Business Class will allow you to enjoy priority services in everything, including smooth baggage claim and transfer procedures on arrival at the airport.

And on board, a rather limited number of seats are laid-out in comfortably spacious space to give each and every one of you all possible care we can.

For reservations and further information, please contact your travel agents or Air Canada office.
