Decision and Surrender

1. The Requested State shall, as soon as a decision on the request for extradition has been made, communicate that decision to the Requesting State. Reasons shall be given for any complete or partial rejection of an extradition request.
2. Where extradition is granted, the Requested State shall inform the Requesting State of the length of time for which the person claimed was detained in custody as a result of the extradition request.
3. Where extradition is granted, the Requested State shall surrender the person from a point of departure in its territory convenient to the Requesting State.
4. The Requesting State shall remove the person from the Requested State within such reasonable period as the Requested State specifies and, if the person is not removed within that period, the Requested State may refuse to extradite that person for the same offence.
