transportation for the group and what is a full description of the means of such transportation including the aircraft?

Hon. James Hugh Faulkner (Secretary of State): I am informed by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation as follows: As for the main question and parts (b) and (c), it has not been customary to require the CBC to supply such details of its internal management and administration. As for part (a), the persons selected were assigned in connection with the differing requirements for news and special program coverage of four networks in the respective languages of those networks. The networks are: the English television network, the English radio network, the French television network and French radio network of the CBC. (d) The group paid normal commercial rates for space in either the Prime Minister's aircraft or, in some cases, on scheduled commercial flights.

RESERVES OF CHARTERED BANKS

Question No. 2,367—Mr. Beaudoin:

1. What is the actual amount of the reserves of each chartered bank held by the Bank of Canada?

2. During the past five years, on what dates were the amounts changed and to what extent?

3. What were the profits gained by each chartered bank through such changes?

Hon. John N. Turner (Minister of Finance): 1. As stipulated by Section 72 of the Bank Act, chartered bank cash reserves may be maintained in the form of notes of, and deposits in Canadian currency with the Bank of Canada. Information is not published for each bank on the amounts of these two components separately; the combined total is shown below for the latest month available.

Notes of and deposits with Bank of Canada
(As at February 28, 1975)

Name of bank	Amount (thousands of dollars)
Bank of Montreal	667,412
The Bank of Nova Scotia	396,333
The Toronto-Dominion Bank	415,058
The Provincial Bank of Canada	105,785
Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce	678,620
The Royal Bank of Canada	789,728
Bank Canadian National	174,470
The Mercantile Bank of Canada	20,163
Bank of British Columbia	4,999
Unity Bank of Canada	6,674
Total	3,259,242

2. The chartered banks are required under the Bank Act to hold reserves against their Canadian-dollar deposit liabilities amounting to twelve per cent of those liabilities payable on demand and four per cent of those payable after notice. The amount of cash reserves actually held by each chartered bank changes daily, primarily in response to clearings of cheques among the banks themselves and the public's demand for Bank of Canada notes but also as
