

Newfoundland Hydro

Mr. Tobin: —hysterical fashion, but if approached in a mature fashion, can be developed. Indeed, we saw, as I am sure my hon. colleague pointed out, the introduction in this very House of Commons, just some months ago, a piece of legislation of which I am most proud. I would end on this note. It was a piece of legislation which gives to the province of Newfoundland, through the powers now vested in the National Energy Board, the right to permit—

Mr. Taylor: Why are you talking it out?

Mr. Tobin: —if dealing is done in good faith, a power corridor to be established through that province to allow that very important Labrador project to go ahead.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: The hour provided for the consideration of private members' business has now expired.

[Translation]

It being five o'clock, this House stands adjourned until Monday next at 2 p.m., pursuant to Standing Order 2(1).

At 5 p.m., the House adjourned without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.