Buildings

Dear Sir Arthur,

In order that proper provision may be made in building plans for the accommodation of the Law Library I take this opportunity of reminding you that there are at present in the Redpath Building 2,000 feet of Law books which could not be transferred to the East Wing on account of the condition of the floors.

This space is urgently needed, owing to the growth of the General Library and, if the Law Library is being placed elsewhere when the Arts Building is remodelled, provision should be made for including the books still in the Redpath Building.

The normal growth of the Library and the unforeseen additions to the Blacker Library of Zoology, as well as the Natural History Society collection, are making demands for space that we cannot at present meet.

Faithfully yours,

University Librarian.
