District of Massachusetts.

{ L. S. } BE it remembered, that on the second day of May, in the twentieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, EDMUND MARSH BLUNT and ANGESA MARSH, of the said District have deposited in this Office the Title of a Book, the Right whereof they claim as Proprietors, in the words following, to wit:—"The American Coast Pilot, containing the Courses and distance from Boston to all the principal Harbours, Capes and Headlands, included between Pafamagundy and the Capes of Virginia, with directions for sailing into, and out of the principal Ports and Harbours, with the soundings on the coast. Also, a Tide Table, shewing the time of High-Water at full and change of the moon, in all the above places, together with the Courses and Distance, from Cape-Cod and Cape-Ann, to the Head of Georges, and from said Capes out in the South and East Channel and the setting of the current to the Eastward and Westward. Also, the Latitude and Longitude of all the principal Harbours, Capes and Headlands, &c. &c. By Capt. LAWRENCE FULTON." Also, "Courses, Directions, Distances, &c. &c. from the Capes of Virginia to the river Mississippi, from the best surveys and observations—(Approved by experienced Pilots and Coasters."

In conformity to the act of Congress of the United States, entitled, "An ACT for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the Author and Proprietors of such Copies, during the times therein mentioned."

N. GOODALE, Clerk of the District Court of Massachusetts District.
