ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

There was a splendid market yester-day; not so many farmers and market gardeners as on Tuesday, but more citi-zens, which made business brisk; not-withstanding which fact the produce was offered at such reasonable, and in some instances, low rates, it paid the citizens be present. R. F. Lotton, Markham, had a load of veal, lamb and sixteen dressed ducks. of veal, lamb and sixteen dressed ducks, which were the best we have seen on the market this season, which he sold at the rate of 18c per lb. and had them weighed by the city weigh scales (certainly a just way to sell). These ducks were one of the bargains on the market.

Ernest Lindsey, Macville, had 14 turkeys (this year's), which he sold at 25c per lb.; 11 geese at 18c per lb.; 15 ducks at 20c per lb. and 50 lbs. of choice butter, which he was offering at 32c and at 20c per lb. and 50 lbs. of choice butter, which he was offering at 32c and 33c per lb. for small lots, or 30c per lb. for large quantities. This was another of the bargains, as it would be difficult to obtain better butter.

L. F. Bradley, Humber Bay, had a load of choice mixed vegetables.

S. Crowther, Lambton Mills, also had a load of A1 vegetables and some fine.

a load of A1 vegetables and some fine chickens and fowls, which he sold at 20c and 17c per lb. respectively, having scales by which to weigh them, the only really fair way to sell fowl.

P. Gorman of West Hill had five bushels of Hess apples, which he sold at 75c per bushel, and 7 bushels of fall Pippins, which he sold at 50c per bushel.
