THE JOURNAL OF COMMERCE-FINANCE AND INSURANCE REVIEW.

24th ult, exceeded four hundred. The number of complime tary notices received from old subscribers if printed would fill an entire issue of the JOURNAL with its 32 pages. THE "Dominiou Rolling Stock Go." of Toronto, through their solicitor, Wm. Mulock, are applying for an Act o' Incorporation, with power to acquire, sell, and lease rolling stock used by railw ys and tramways.

THE PEOPLE of Newmarket, Ont., are no longer villagers; they developed into townsvolk on New Year's day. The place was in-

E. L. FOSTER, of E. L. Foster & Co., a small and short-lived boot and shoe manufacturing through Mr. Hugh MacMahon, solicitor, for an Act incorporating "The Ontario Investment

Association" of London, Unt., for the buying and selling of stocks, receiving money on deposit, loaning and borrowing money on mortgages on real and personal estate, and advancing money on debentures; and also to enable the said Association to act as agents for financial purposes.

postpone our welcome of the Glengurry Times into the field of journalism, which we hasten now to do. Mr. McNeil is to be complimented on the unquestionably fine appearance and character of his journal, and it shows that the liberal patronage extended to him by the people of Lancaster and the county at large, as pub-import during the winter months for Quebec

A NEW PAPER.-Owing to pressure on our time and space last week we were obliged to and Ontario merchandise.

8