arm and olive branch in hand, waving a lull of peace over a verdant and happy land.

ord-

esty

ing

s a

in

nding led ng

ng

ere er es-

ht

er er s-

d d Within Otto's voice, pure and sweet, rose above the chorus of "The Holy City," in which myriads of angel voices joined in a glad refrain, reverberating man's duty to man, all down through Eternal Ages.

THE END.