

Entrance to Court Yard of Chateau Frontenac from Dufferia Terrace showing the building before its last addition was erected.

The grandest hotel in Canada, and in many respects has no equal on the continent. It was built by the Canadian Pacific Railroad, at a cost of over one million dollars, and is operated by them. It is located upon Dufferin Terrace, just below the claded, and commands a view both up and down the river as far as the eye can see and across the river to Levis. No grander site for a hotel could be found on the continent. The beauty of the seenery cannot be described. It is a spot of great historic note, having been the site of the reslected or many of the governors of Canada. A whole volume could be written describing the beauties, comforts and advantages of this princely chauteau; we can only give it a passing notice. The interior arrangements, the furnishings, the cuisine and menu compare favorements which the location and extent on more statements.
