

Sunday, October 22.—I preached in the morning to two hundred persons, in the parish church at Windsor; confirmed twenty-seven persons, and addressed them; and preached again in the same church in the afternoon, on behalf of the Church Society, a committee of which the Rev. A. Gilpin is desirous to organize in his mission. In the evening I preached in the College Chapel, and addressed the students.

Monday, October 23.—A violent storm confined me to the College.

CORNWALLIS—CLERMONT.

Tuesday, October 24.—I left Windsor very early, and travelled nineteen miles, through bad roads, to the church at Cornwallis, where I found nearly one hundred and fifty persons assembled at eleven o'clock. I baptized six adults, preached, confirmed twenty four persons, and addressed them all generally, and more particularly those who were solemnly admitted into the Christian fold, after due preparation for this holy admission, by the earnest attention of the Rev. J. Storrs, the Missionary. After the service Mr. Storrs drove me, about a mile, to an ancient burial-ground, which was consecrated.

Wednesday, October 25.—Mr. Storrs accompanied me in visits to several aged and respectable members of his flock, and then drove me fifteen miles on the road towards Clermont, where I arrived in the evening, full of gratitude to God for His merciful
