

The Crescent Moon: Child Poems

Translated by the Author from the Original Bengali.
With 8 Illustrations in Color

12mo, $1.25. Limp leather $1.50

As the title implies this little volume contains poems devoted to the subject of children. The illustrations are reproduced in color from drawings by native artists.

"Comes closest to life as we know it and to the spirit of the West. . . . We can accept his lyrics of children in full comprehension of their worth, even though we have few poets who speak with such understanding."—The Outlook.

"Nothing could be more charming than the attractive child-poems in this book. Tagore is at once a student of religion, a mirror of India and an interpreter of human life. The genuine humanity of his writings is nowhere more apparent than in this attractive book."—Advance.

"Tagore is probably the greatest living poet, and this book of child-poems has the bloom of all young life upon it faithfully transcribed by genius."—Metropolitan.
