

BYE-LAWS.

ARTICLE IV.—MEMBERSHIP.

No person under — years of age shall be admitted to membership in this club.

ARTICLE V.—DUTIES.

Sect. 1. No member shall enter the club room during the opening, initiatory, or closing ceremonies.

Sect. 2. Every member shall be clothed with the proper Regalia during club meetings.

Sect. 3. It shall be the duty of the presiding officer, at each regular meeting, to ask the following questions:

Is any member sick? Any report from committee on sickness? Has any member violated his pledge? Does any member know of such violation? Has any member ought to communicate beneficial to the club, or to the general cause? Will any member propose a friend for membership? And all members shall hold themselves in readiness to answer promptly any such questions.

Sect. 4. No member shall fail to report any delinquency or offence known to be committed by any member of his club.

Sect. 5. Should a member of one club know of the violation of the pledge by any member of another club, he shall give such information to the respective club as may lead to the trial and conviction of the offender.

Sect. 6. Members in speaking shall conform to parliamentary usages, and avoid impugning the motives of members and all offensive personalities.

ARTICLE VI.—OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

Sect. 1. Any member, guilty of divulging the sayings or doings of club meetings, or of neglecting to pay his dues or tax, may be suspended or expelled by a vote of the majority; but a motion to suspend or expel shall lie over till next regular meeting.

Sect. 2. Any member guilty of using uncourteous language, or of conducting himself disorderly in club meetings, may be reprimanded, suspended, or expelled, as the club may think proper.
