Field Trials Closed.
Ruthe, Nov. 23.—The last day of the international field trials was favored by beautiful weather and the conditions for good bird work were of the best. The all-day stake, which was started yesterday afternoon, was concluded today. First prize was won by the white, black and tan bitch Atlanta, owned by Dr. Campion of Harrow and handled by A. Pilon. She is by Prime Minister, out of Louise Dunstone. She outclassed the other contestants in class and also in bird work. Second place was won by the black and white pointer dog, Joe Hawk, by Duke, first out of Fly Ann. He is a good-sized pointer, who shows a good reliable dog. He is owned by A. Pickering of Blenheim, Ont. Tommy Atkins, black and white setter dog by Setton, out of Sue Monte, owned by H. H. Werten of Montreal, won third place. His work in the second series was exceptional, exhibiting great endurance and his win was very popular. He was handled by his owner, who prepared him for these trials while on his holidays and reserved great credit for the way in which his dog ran. Birds were found in good numbers in the morning and the dogs were all given good opportunities on game with the exception of one brace, which were thrown out of stake for lack of class. J. G. Armstrong, Detroit, and Marshall Graydon, London, were the judges.

HOCKEY NEWS AND GOSSIP

SCHEDULE FOR N. Y. LEAGUE

Toronto and Outside Clubs Continue to Reorganize—
Some Notes.

New York, Nov. 23.—With all the Amateur Hockey League games for the season scheduled to be played in the St. Nicholas rink, the enthusiasts are looking forward to a season of more than average interest. In fact, reservations have already been placed by the fans for the seats for the entire series. The schedule does not start until after the holidays, the opening game, on Tuesday, Jan. 8, 1897, being some three weeks later than last season. Likewise the season closes nearly two weeks earlier, giving a six weeks' season for this year.

The league is made up of the four teams that finished last season—the Crescent Athletic Club, the New York Athletic Club, the St. Nicholas Hockey Club and the Hockey Club of New York. Each team will play each of the other teams two games, making 12 games in all. The nights set aside by the rink for these games will be Tuesday and Thursday. The schedule is as follows:
January 8, Tuesday, Crescent A.C. v. Hockey Club; 10, Thursday, N.Y.A.C. v. St. Nicholas H.C.; 15, Tuesday, St. Nicholas H.C. v. Hockey Club; 22, Thursday, N.Y.A.C. v. Crescent A.C.; 29, Tuesday, Hockey Club v. N.Y.A.C.; 30, Wednesday, St. Nicholas H.C. v. N.Y.A.C.; 31, Thursday, Hockey Club v. Crescent A.C.February 5, Tuesday, Hockey Club v. St. Nicholas H.C.; 7, Thursday, Hockey Club v. N.Y.A.C.; 14, Thursday, St. Nicholas H.C. v. Crescent A.C.; 19, Tuesday, N.Y.A.C. v. Hockey Club.
With this situation, the possibility of a tie, as last year, is looked forward to with some enthusiasm. The first game of the season will be played off at the St. Nicholas rink, where seating arrangements can be had, against the back of last year at the Brooklyn rink.

With the fixing of the dates for the Amateur League, the intercollegiate schedule is now in course of preparation, following which will come the professional season. The first hockey game of the season will be on Dec. 20, when the St. Paul's School of Garden City, N.J., plays the St. Marks of Southboro, Mass.
