The Toronto World CHILDREN'S HUMANE LEAGUE

Now that the holiday season is so soon to turn our children out into the fields and woods, parks and gardens, it is right and necessary that a word should be spoken about the treatment of animals and the care of trees and plants.

Children seem to be, for the most part, incapable of realizing, unless explicitly told, that animals have the same feelings as themselves, and that it is degrading to hurt or tyrannize over them.

A silver pin, with the letters "T. W. H. L." will be awarded the boy or girl of 14 years or under who shall send the best letter of 200 words, or less, to this column. The letter must reach the editor on or before July 6.

Contributions are to be written on one side of the paper only, and must be plainly signed with name and address of writer. Only members of the Toronto World Humane League can compete.

I wish to become a member of The Toronto World Humane League.

The June Bride.

The ways of the honeymoon lead to the summer resorts—in June. By the way, this leafy time of June, which poets sing and for which maidens sigh, is productive of two great institutions—mild matrimony and the soul-moving mosquito.

It is still easy to spot the June bride. All the different varieties are shown as usual. They are distinguished as per custom by a variety of attire that makes rigid regiment look inconspicuous.

Some very fine effects in June brides are shown this year. The most conspicuous effects created considerable conversation yesterday.

Miss May S. Mawhinney and Ernest G. Bryant were married yesterday morning in the Church of St. Mary Magdalene.

At St. Paul's (R.C.) Church, Miss Minnie Levick and James Nolan were wed.

Miss Eva Jennings and Edward Culley were married in St. John's Church yesterday afternoon by Rev. Alex. Williams.

Miss Nan Manning, daughter of the late George G. Manning of Bowmanville, and Gerald Marks were married yesterday by Rev. F. G. Wallace of Oakville.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Bee and Alfred Roden were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. O. Johnson at the home of the bride's mother in Baldwin street.

At Memorial Church, Pentangulishene, the marriage was solemnized of Miss Frances M. Payette, youngest daughter of Rev. Thomas Payette, to Harry S. Shanahan of Midland, by Rev. Father Kidd.

Seven little girls, Lillian and Marion Hall, Eunice and Ruth Fudger, Phyllis and Mary Anderson, and Marie Parks, held a garden party recently at No. 6 Castle Frank-road in aid of the fresh air fund for children and succeeded in raising $17.

Hard on the Saving Banks. This sort of weather brings the vacation microbe seductively whispering of woods and mountains and cool waters, drawing enticing pictures hard to forget in the city's heat and dust.

Fushimi Gives More to Charity. KINGSTON, June 26.—Mayor Mowat has received from Arthur Sladen, secretary to the governor-general, a letter announcing that Prince Fushimi had given $37 for charity institutions in Kingston.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

The Royal Military College Club, at its annual meeting and dinner, elected Lt.-Col. C. R. Coutlee, of Ottawa, as president, and Lt.-Col. Wurtelle of Quebec was reappointed secretary.

At St. Clement's Anglican Church, Eglington, yesterday, the marriage was celebrated of Miss Muriel Atkins and John Henry West, eldest son of Rev. W. Powell and Rev. A. R. Griffin officiating. Miss Ivy Atkins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Queenie Strathay and Miss Grace Rolph. The groom was assisted by his brother, Dr. George Strathay, and best man, Howard Ridout, Sidney Thorne, and Elliott Atkins were ushers. The bride wore a gown of liberty satin, princess, and carried a bouquet of pink roses, tied and embroidered with chiffon and tulle. Her veil, which was of tulle, was trimmed with seed pearls. This is the same veil which was worn by Mrs. Van Straubenzie, and is a handsome and costly piece of work.

At St. Stephen's Church, Miss Minnie Rosnach and William Ross Hicks were married yesterday afternoon.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Bee and Alfred Roden were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. O. Johnson at the home of the bride's mother in Baldwin street.

WILL TAKE VOTE SEPT. 14 ON WATERWORKS BYLAW

City Engineer's Recommendations For Mains Approved by Board of Control.

The vote on the bylaw to provide $710,000 for waterworks extensions will be taken Sept. 14. The board of control fixed the date yesterday, after passing the various recommendations for water mains, made by the city engineer, and adding a new 12-inch main on East Gerrard street or Danforth avenue for supplying water to East Toronto.

Deputy City Engineer Fellowes, in reply to a query by Controller Harrison, said he didn't think the city needed establish another reservoir, since the reservoir is used, not as a source of supply, but merely for emergencies.

As it was agreed that East Toronto would ultimately be annexed, the Danforth main was added. One reservoir is enough.

Light at Crossing. There was no need for an extra light at Bay-street crossing, and no order for such a light had yet been issued by the railway commission, so Secretary of the fire department informed the board.

H. D. Gamble, on behalf of Elimaven property owners, protested vigorously against the proposed laying of asphalt on that thoroughfare, claiming that it would be a nuisance, and that the city hadn't given sufficient notice. The controllers promised to look into the alleged grievance.

General Superintendent Oberne of the C.P.R. in a letter to the mayor, expressed satisfaction that the city is allowed the representatives of the railways to be heard further in the Ashbridge's Bay spur line matter.
