THE SENIOR LACROSSE LEAGUE.
It is Now National Lacrosse and Rugby and Clubs Must Stick to League

Montreal, Jan. 15.-At the Senior League meeting held here today the Shamrocks, Capitals and Toronto were represented. The Capitals' secretary, Mr. Dunn, made a statement justifying the action of his club in paying bonuses. Mr. Dunn said that he believed that in urging the executive to do so he was acting within the spirit of the definition of an amateur.

The league, after Mr. Dunn's explanation, sympathized with him and hoped under the peculiar circumstances of the case the C.A.A. would be lenient in its character not to deprive the national game of a club that has highly elevated the style of the game.

The league is still to consist of four clubs, but it intends to Rugby football to its objects, each club to enter a team and play a schedule of matches. The league is the last championship lacrosse match. It is expected that the clubs will ultimately take up hockey.

The annual meeting is to take place the last Sunday in January. The league clubs bind themselves that there shall be no professional or semi-professional lacrosse as far as they are concerned.

In case Cornwall does not come in the National league will have the privilege. All exhibition games played by the teams of the league are to be played on the grounds of the clubs in the leagues, and no others, under pain of a heavy penalty.

JUDGE LEONARD DRAWN

The Crescent A. C.'s 20-Round Bout Was Clean, Fast and Even.

A Big Crowd Pleased With the Boxing Entertainment at the Auditorium-Daily Stopped McDonald in Four Rounds and Bobby Thompson Beat Jack Ryan in Five.

The Crescent Athletic Club's boxing entertainment at the Auditorium Saturday night was one of the most successful affairs of the kind from every standpoint ever held in the city. The house was well filled and the bouts were all contested in clever, fast and stylish.

The main event, the 20-round bout between Mike Leonard of New York and Martin Judge of Philadelphia, was replete with all sorts of clever sparring, clean breaking and no display of temper. The decision was a draw and no other could have been given under the circumstances. Everyone expected that Leonard would win under 10 rounds, but Judge went in with plenty of confidence, that never deserted him throughout the milling.

His hard and clean work gained many friends for the Quaker boxer and the applause that was all for the Best Brummett at the start was evenly divided at the finish.

The bout was the fastest and most even ever seen in Toronto. The second round was relaxed at times from fatigue, and on re-entering they went at it again with a hurricane of hard and clean blows that drove the house.

The Crescent A. C.'s referee, Jack Sheehan of Boston, proved that he was for the official and just the man for the work. He is a typical Irish-American and he gave out his decisions with a fair and even hand. He was not troubled from any quarter. He kept everyone, and his three awards could have met with no possible objection.

The contest showed that the principals were both in perfect physical condition. They were both in perfect physical condition. They were both in perfect physical condition.

On the claim of Dan Kelly, first bout was awarded Judge in the fifth round. There were no knockdowns, although both were tripped to the floor towards the middle of the bout, and in each instance the other boxer offered him his opponent up.

Both were good two-handed boxers, although Judge showed only a slight left hand. Leonard executed some expert ducking.

On the toss for Judge and took the southwest corner, he having with him, besides the A. C. instructor, Jimmy Rice and George Sangster, all of Toronto, while Leonard had the northeast corner.
