

Orders Still Continue to Pour In !!

But it takes a lot to clear out a Large Tailoring Stock. We still have Many Lengths Left.

The Greatest Value Ever Offered for Ordered Garments

- - DON'T MISS THIS CHANCE - -

Any Suit

IN STOCK

$12.00

Any Overcoat

IN STOCK

$12.00

Any Trousering

IN STOCK

$2.75

And they are all good goods only slightly smoked. Made to your measure in first-class style. Call and see anyway.

Archambault THE TAILOR
125 Yonge Street.

INQUIRY INTO MR. JENNYMAN

A Couple of Preachers Have a Hot Set-To in Words That Would Suit Politics Better.

NO SPECIFIC CHARGES YET MADE.

Was Hon. Sam Blake's Presence to Lay the Foundation for a Libel Suit Against an Editor?

The investigation of the charges against Rev. H. S. Jennyman was resumed yesterday afternoon with Rev. Dr. Carman presiding. In opening Dr. Carman said that he wanted to see British fair play in the matter. Mr. Jennyman had come here credentialed by prominent men, and articles in a certain paper had plunged all in the mire together. He requested the editor to bring matters down to something definite.

Lawyer Blake Appears.
At this point Hon. S. H. Blake arose and said he appeared on behalf of Mr. Jennyman. He asked that a week's time be allowed in which specific charges and indictments could be sent to Mr. Jennyman that he might prepare for his defence.

The editor of The Westminster then said that before anything else was done there were some personal matters which must be settled.
Mr. Blake again rose to press his request saying: "I do not even know who this gentleman is."
The editor: "I am Mr. Macdonald."
Mr. Blake, extending his hand: "I am pleased to meet you, sir." They shook hands, and Mr. Macdonald said he was taking objection to a statement written by the secretary of the committee, which said that every effort had been made to have Mr. Macdonald present. The letters which explained Mr. Macdonald's absence were referred to as sufficient explanation to the committee.

Mr. Blake was obliged to leave at this point owing to another engagement, whereupon Rev. Mr. Milligan remarked that if lawyers were to be employed he would not remain.

Dr. Carman Explains.
The reference made by Dr. Carman as to Mr. Macdonald's honor was brought up, and Dr. Carman explained that what he said was meant as a vindication of Mr. Macdonald and not as an accusation. The chairman wanted some specific charges made and wanted proofs for what had appeared in The Westminster.

The Editor's Defence.
Mr. Macdonald then explained his stand on the matter. He was the editor of a paper, and felt it his duty when he saw an evil thing to expose it. He had investigated the matter and published statements which, if not true, were actionable in the law courts of the land. As an editor of a religious paper, he was amenable to the Presbytery of Toronto. He was willing to answer to either of these courts, but said he: "Do you suppose I am going to recognize this self-appointed committee? Do you suppose I am going to throw away my defence in case of an action?" He then explained that he was not present as an accuser, and, therefore, would make no specific charges. He was willing to give any information to help clear up the matter, but would not consent to have the Westminster articles discussed.

He Rejoined Dr. Carman.
Addressing the chair, he said: "I thought, sir, that having received my letter, you must either be the most unsophisticated man in the world, or thought I was, when you asked me to make specifications. I am ready to prove every charge, if I have to, but don't ask me here for specific charges, indictments, etc. You can investigate Mr. Jennyman if you choose, but you cannot investigate The Westminster. I will only answer the charges appearing there in two ways. I have to safeguard my commercial interests."

Things Do Get Hot.
Dr. Carman: "Well, I know what I am doing, as a Briton."
Mr. Macdonald, drawing himself up to his full height: "I know, sir; I am a Briton, too. I will not listen to such insinuations."
After a good deal of wrangling about adjourning, and whether Rev. Mr. MacLachlan or Rev. Mr. Jennyman should be heard first, it was agreed to hear Mr. MacLachlan's story.

Both Back Jennyman.
In the meantime, Mr. Elias Rogers, who has been treasurer of the Mission Fund, explained that he had written the following letter to Rev. Wilbur F. Paddock, D.D., of Halifax:

"Would you kindly let me know by return of mail your opinion of Rev. H. S. Jennyman and his work in Asia Minor? At the request of some friends, I consented to act as local treasurer here a short time ago, and myself and others are much interested to know as much about his work as possible from disinterested sources."
Rev. Dr. Paddock replied: "Your note just at hand. The work of Rev. H. S. Jennyman in Asia Minor has been highly commended by the most distinguished American clergy in this and other cities. It has not met the approval of certain local mission boards in Turkey, largely, I think, from its unorthodox character; but I have yet to learn anything against the character of this gentleman, or the value of his enterprises."

Rev. Dr. Virginia's Reply.
A similar letter had been sent to Rev. Samuel H. Virginia, D.D., pastor of Pilgrim Church, New York, who replied: "I understand that Rev. H. S. Jennyman is called to account in Toronto for the work he has been doing for the Lord these many years. It is sad, when there are so few workers, that any should be hindered in earnest toil, but inspection is always in order, and always welcomed by true men. Mr. Jennyman and his friends count careful enquiry into his efforts for the spiritual, intellectual and material welfare of his countrymen. I have known him for many years, and watched his exploits for the Master. He has been unselfish, unflinching and marked by rare fidelity to God and man. On the Advisory Board of St. Paul's Institute I gladly took a similar place when he established the Asia Minor Apostolic Institute. It was humane for him to try to relieve suffering when martyrdom became a common experience in Armenia. I believe him to be true to his consecrated purpose, that he enjoys the favor of God upon his work, that he ought to have the support of Christian people, and, above all, the loving regard of his brethren in the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ. Regular mission work under our boards cannot be hampered by such formal and kindly efforts as he continually makes. Love for all missions increases when he and Mrs. Jennyman speak and pray."

I trust the Toronto brethren will stand by him loyally.

The Chairman Was Curious.
Rev. Mr. MacLachlan, who was quite ill, was obliged to tell his story while seated. Just as Mr. MacLachlan was about to begin, Dr. Carman unfeelingly asked, "Who is this Mr. MacLachlan? Let us hear all about him."

Mr. MacLachlan: "Perhaps I had better tell you where I was born?"
Dr. Carman: "Yes."
Mr. MacLachlan: "Well, I was born in the country a few miles north of Toronto. Dr. Carman: "Well, there are lots of sinners there."
Mr. MacLachlan: "Yes, sir, just as there are in the church."

Rev. Mr. MacLachlan was then obliged to give a full history of his life. Dr. Carman all the time pestering him with irrelevant questions.

Mr. Tait Interfered.
Mr. Joseph Tait then rose and asked: "Would it do to let Mr. MacLachlan tell his story without such interruptions?"
Dr. Carman replied that he wanted to know all about this man, and if they did not approve someone else would have to take the chair.

Mr. Tait: "Well, we have no objection to that, if you like."
Mr. MacLachlan then continued his story, being still interrupted, much against the wish of many present.

Mr. MacLachlan's Story.
His story states that he became associated with Mr. Jennyman about 10 years ago, and they went out together to the Turkish field. Mr. Jennyman had acted in many cases without consulting either Mr. MacLachlan or the board under whom they were sent out. Mr. MacLachlan made frequent complaints to the board concerning Mr. Jennyman, and in about two years he had the same complaints to make concerning his actions. He also stated that the money which he collected here by Mr. Jennyman is administered in Turkey by persons of his own appointment. He also stated that money sent to Jennyman for the benefit of his own appointment. He also stated that money sent to Jennyman for the benefit of his own appointment.

Mr. Rogers' Statement.
Mr. Elias Rogers read a statement of how the money which had passed through his hands had been allotted.

Mr. MacLachlan explained that out of the six allotments of money made, only two had been through the American Mission Board. The resolution passed by the Central Turkish Mission denouncing Mr. Jennyman's work was again read.

Rev. Mr. Hyde announced that $25 had been spent in bringing these people together, and a collection was taken up forthwith.

Before the meeting adjourned Mr. Jennyman stated he was prepared to answer all charges, and asked if there were any more to make, that they be brought up now.

The meeting then adjourned to meet again to-day at 2.30, when the defence will present their case.

VISIT THE "ROUNDED CORNER"
And See the Many Novelties Offered for Christmas.

The season is now at hand for the purchasing of Christmas presents, and no more suitable place to buy them can be found than the Rounded Corner. This store is complete in every detail, and contains abundance of suitable things for men and boys—things which will gladden their hearts at Yuletide—and cause them to long remember the giver with gratitude and appreciation. What could be more suitable for a Christmas gift to a gentleman than one of Jamieson's handsome smoking coats or lounging gowns, imported from the most fashionable English and French manufacturers? The price, too, of these goods, considering the beautiful way in which they are made, is very low, and within the reach of all, thanks to the enterprise of Mr. Jamieson, who secured the lot at a special bargain. This is only one suggestion of the many novelties that the "Rounded Corner" contains, and before even a slight idea may be gained of the magnitude and variety of the stock it will be necessary to visit this mammoth establishment, and then the vexed question of "What shall I buy for Christmas?" will immediately be solved.

WHERE SNOW IS DEEP.
Mr. Morrow Had to Get Into His Barn Through the Roof.

Mansfield, Ont., Dec. 16.—(Special).—Owing to the great snow storm which has been raging for the past two weeks, our mail carrier, Mr. J. J. Morrow of Perm, has his outbuildings so buried in snow that he had to make an entrance through the roof of his barn to provide food and water for his stock. When found, he was in an exhausted condition. There are now only two mules a week, which should be daily, and a scarcity of wood is expected shortly, if the storm continues.

HOME CURE FOR DRINK
Ing and personal integrity permitted by Sir W. R. Meredith, Chief Justice; Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education; G. W. Yarker, Banker; H. S. Strachy, Manager, Traders' Bank.

FROM OLD QUEBEC.

Remembrance From the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen—Claim of $35,000 Paid.

Quebec, Dec. 16.—Captain C. J. Dunn of the R.N.R. received yesterday from Lord and Lady Aberdeen two handsomely framed portraits of Their Excellencies, with a kindly written letter conveying the fact that the gift was to the Garrison Club in recognition of many pleasant remembrances during their stay in Canada.

The sum of $35,000 involved in the long pending lawsuit of Peters vs. Moore and Wright, which was settled by the Court of Appeal here on Dec. 2, in favor of Peters, was paid this morning by the Union Bank of Canada. Mr. G. F. Gibson acting for Peters and G. G. Stuart, Q.C., for Moore and Wright.

Kaiser to Wear a Toga.
Paris, Dec. 16.—The Figaro prints a story that when the Kaiser visits Rome next March he will give a ball at the German Embassy with costumes of the time of ancient imperial Rome. The Kaiser himself appearing in tunic and purple mantle. The Kaiser will be a guest at the Quirinal white in Rome and may be present at the ball which the German Ambassador will give in the Palace Caffarelli.

Auction Sale, Horses, Etc.
A great special estate sale will be held at Grand's on Tuesday next at 11 o'clock. A number of fine horses, carriages, cutlery, sleighs, robes, harness, etc., are included in the list. All on view for inspection Monday.

The Dyke Cure for Alcoholism is a healthful, safe, inexpensive home treatment. No hypodermic injections; no publicity, no loss of time from business and a certainty of cure. Consultation and correspondence free and confidential.

HOME CURE FOR DRINK
DR. MCGAGGART, 423 Park Avenue, London. References as to Dr. McGaggart's professional standing and personal integrity permitted by Sir W. R. Meredith, Chief Justice; Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education; G. W. Yarker, Banker; H. S. Strachy, Manager, Traders' Bank.

National Trust Company, of Ontario, Limited.

HEAD OFFICE—CORNER KING AND VICTORIA-STREETS, TORONTO.
Capital Subscribed, $1,000,000.

At a Premium of 25 per cent.
President—J. W. Flavell, Esq., Managing Director the William Davies Company, Limited; Director the Canadian Bank of Commerce.
Vice-President—A. E. Ames, Esq., Of A. E. Ames & Co., Second Vice-President Imperial Life Assurance Company, Director Toronto Electric Light Company.

TRANSACTS
A GENERAL TRUST BUSINESS.
—FUNDS RECEIVED, INVESTED AND GUARANTEED.
—BONDS AND STOCK CERTIFICATES COUNTERSIGNED.
—STOCK TRANSFER AGENT.
Conferences invited and Correspondence Solicited.

E. R. WOOD, Managing Director.

Bell Pianos
Appeal to the most critical musical taste—ment to-day than any other make of Piano offered to the public.
Warehouses—70 King St. W.

TOYS GAMES AND PASTIMES

THE HAROLD A. WILSON CO., LIMITED

35 King Street West, Toronto.

TOYS TOYS TOYS

NOTICES.

CH. COURT OF JUST.
Master in Chambers.
Second Day of Decem.

T. James Longworth.
drew P. Scott, Defendant.
ation of the plaintiff, the itor for the applicant, and
the affidavit of Alexander

that service upon Thomas party in the office of the
ry in this cause, of the action, by publishing this
with the said Notice T,
once a week for three
the seventh day of Dec
The Toronto World news-
at Toronto, he deemed
nt service of said Notice T,
AN WINCHESTER, M.C.

High Court of Justice.
T. James Longworth,
drew P. Scott, Defendant.
ion has been instituted by plaintiff for redemption of ertain lands, situate in the 2, in the County of York, eed of Lots Nos. Twenty
(21) and Twenty-three (23),
of Dundas-street, accord-entered in the Registry Of-
city of York, as Plan No.

en directed by the judge
his cause, and dated the mber, A.D. 1898, to enquire
other than the plaintiff
lien or incumbrance upon

has been made to appear
you have each some lien,
rance upon the said estate,
before, caused you to be
this action, and appointed
January, A.D. 1898, at 11
noon, for you to appear
my chambers, at Osgoode
of Toronto, either in per-sollicitor, to prove your

hereby required to take
you wish to apply to dis-
making you a party, or
or set aside the judgment,
within 14 days after the
and if you fail to do so,
and by the judgment, and
set aside in this cause, as if fully made a party to this
fail to attend at the time ted, you will be treated as
interest in the land in ques-
be dealt with as if you
green, and your claim will
be set.

day of Dec. A.D. 1898,
THOMAS HODGINS,
Master-in-Ordinary.
Margrave, John W. Gowan Pinky, made parties in
face.

Cecil Gibson.
Life Chambers, Toronto,
Plaintiff's Solicitor.

CREDITORS.

of the estate of Jane
of the City of Toronto,
ty of York, spinster, de-
by given, pursuant to the
O. 1898, chapter 120, that
other persons having
the estate of Jane Fields,
of Toronto, spinster, de-
d on or about the 3rd day 1898, at Toronto, in the York, are, on or before the
ember, 1898, required to repaid, or delivered, to the
utors of the estate of the
their Christian and cur-
and descriptions, and a
their respective claims and
proofs thereof, and the clues, if any, held by them,
hereby further given that,
day of December, 1898, the
will proceed to distribute the said deceased amongst
ed thereto, having reason-
as of which they then shall
and, and the said execu-
for the said estate, or
to, to any person or persons claims they shall not then

GENERAL TRUSTS CO.
one & Edgar,
NIT, 23, D3, 17

CREDITORS.

ate Court of the County in the matter of the
Mary Elizabeth Jack-
w, deceased, intestate.

given, pursuant to R.S.O.,
section 88, that all cred-
persons having claims
of Mary Elizabeth Jack-
City of Toronto, in the K, widow, deceased, be
the 20th day of October,
before the 28th day of
W. Maclean, solicitor for
of the estate of the said deceased, to present their
and statements of their ac-
nature of the security fit-tem, duly verified by statu-take notice that after the said administrator will prothe claims of the credi-the parties entitled thereto, only to the claims of which the administrator has had responsibility for the assets, claim he shall not then have into, this 2nd day of De-FRANK W. MACLEAN, for Toronto, Solicitor, 699 ministrator.

NOTICE to Creditors
in Badenach, deceased,
in order of the High Court of a certain estate, deceased, the on of Ontario against Badenach, deceased, chapter 50, to or general lien upon the individual share thereof of late the 20th day of De-county of York, insurance on or about the 20th day are, on or before the 27th ry, 1898, to send, by post, Trusts Corporation of On-west, Toronto, their names, addresses and de-full particulars of their out of their accounts, and securities (if any) held by it, thereof they will be reed from the benefit of the very creditor holding any educe the same before the ary at his Chambers in the city of Toronto, on January 1898, at 11 o'clock the time appointed for the claims.

day of December, 1898,
NEIL MACLEAN,
Chief Clerk.

ENTARY NOTICE.

HEREBY GIVEN THAT
ation will be made to Canada at its next session
Life Assurance Company
an act to amend the Act a Victoria, chapter 50, to any to purchase contingent us, of females, to ins of lending and of invest-Section 17 of the said urrendering of certain poli-er purposes, E. T. Malone, Applicant,
1898.

NOTICES.

CH. COURT OF JUST.
Master in Chambers.
Second Day of Decem.

T. James Longworth.
drew P. Scott, Defendant.
ation of the plaintiff, the
itor for the applicant, and
the affidavit of Alexander

that service upon Thomas
party in the office of the
ry in this cause, of the
action, by publishing this
with the said Notice T,
once a week for three
the seventh day of Dec
The Toronto World news-
at Toronto, he deemed
nt service of said Notice T,
AN WINCHESTER, M.C.

High Court of Justice.
T. James Longworth,
drew P. Scott, Defendant.
ion has been instituted by
plaintiff for redemption of
ertain lands, situate in the
2, in the County of York,
eed of Lots Nos. Twenty
(21) and Twenty-three (23),
of Dundas-street, accord-
entered in the Registry Of-
city of York, as Plan No.

en directed by the judge
his cause, and dated the
mber, A.D. 1898, to enquire
other than the plaintiff
lien or incumbrance upon

has been made to appear
you have each some lien,
rance upon the said estate,
before, caused you to be
this action, and appointed
January, A.D. 1898, at 11
noon, for you to appear
my chambers, at Osgoode
of Toronto, either in per-sollicitor, to prove your

hereby required to take
you wish to apply to dis-
making you a party, or
or set aside the judgment,
within 14 days after the
and if you fail to do so,
and by the judgment, and
set aside in this cause, as if
fully made a party to this
fail to attend at the time
ted, you will be treated as
interest in the land in ques-
be dealt with as if you
green, and your claim will
be set.

day of Dec. A.D. 1898,
THOMAS HODGINS,
Master-in-Ordinary.
Margrave, John W. Gowan Pinky, made parties in
face.

Cecil Gibson.
Life Chambers, Toronto,
Plaintiff's Solicitor.

CREDITORS.

of the estate of Jane
of the City of Toronto,
ty of York, spinster, de-
by given, pursuant to the
O. 1898, chapter 120, that
other persons having
the estate of Jane Fields,
of Toronto, spinster, de-
d on or about the 3rd day
1898, at Toronto, in the York, are, on or before the
ember, 1898, required to
repaid, or delivered, to the
utors of the estate of the
their Christian and cur-
and descriptions, and a
their respective claims and
proofs thereof, and the
clues, if any, held by them,
hereby further given that,
day of December, 1898, the
will proceed to distribute
the said deceased amongst
ed thereto, having reason-
as of which they then shall
and, and the said execu-
for the said estate, or
to, to any person or persons
claims they shall not then

GENERAL TRUSTS CO.
one & Edgar,
NIT, 23, D3, 17

CREDITORS.

ate Court of the County
in the matter of the
Mary Elizabeth Jack-
w, deceased, intestate.

given, pursuant to R.S.O.,
section 88, that all cred-
persons having claims
of Mary Elizabeth Jack-
City of Toronto, in the K, widow, deceased, be
the 20th day of October,
before the 28th day of
W. Maclean, solicitor for
of the estate of the said
deceased, to present their
and statements of their ac-
nature of the security fit-
tem, duly verified by statu-