In New City Hall Will Be Fitted Up When Mr. Lennox Gets Orders From the Board.

TRUSTEES SEEM TO BE INDIFFERENT

Because Their Offices Are Comfort able Now-The Separate School Board is in It.

The officials of the Public School Boar are not yet exhibiting much concern regarding the removal of their places of busines from their present comfortable and wellappointed offices on York-street to the more spacious and modern quarters in the new City Buildings.

They Are Indifferent. Architect Lennox has so far received no Intimation from the School Board or the officials as to the way in which they desire the offices to be furnished, but the board entertains somewhat aristocratic ideas as to the manner in which the board room Senior Judge of Ontario County Taken shall be fitted up. As is generally known, a school trustee attaches more importance to himself than he does to an alderman. Most trustees suffer from this, and therefore it is not surprising that this august body will demand that their board room be furnished in identically the same manner as the City Council chamber. There is nothing small about the Public School Board, and its chairman wants a handsome and expensive chair, such as Mayor Shaw will have, and which is still on exhibition in the Rogers Company window on Yongestreet, It is also desired that the chairs for the trustees be like those of the aldermen, and be placed in a semi-circular row, as in the Council chamber, with a table and read chairs in the centre for the reporters. shall be fitted up. Whitby, Feb., 2.—(Special.)—George Henry Frewen Dartnell, senior judge of Ontario County, died suddenly from paralysis at 2 o'clock this morning. He had been in feeble health for a year

some years County Attorney and Clerk

He was born in Limerick, Feb. 14, 1834, and was educated at King College in 1850, and was called to the Ontario bar, 1858. He was appointed of Ont., Oct., 1873, and senior judge, Dec. 12, 1896.

The deceased was married twice, in 1857 to Maria Louisa, daughter of the late A. B. Hawke, Chief Emigrant Agent for Ontario. She died in 1870. His second wife, who survives, was Miss Caroline, daughter of Mr. G. C. Gross. He leaves two sons and two daughters.

His Honor was in his younger days an enthusiastic curler and cricketer, and was for many years president of the Ortario Cricketers. Association.

The separate School Board has a space set apart for its use on this floor, but what it intends to do with it is so far a matter of speculation only, as the architect has not neard from the board regarding the way it wants the space divided. The space allotted to the board is 48 x 33 feet, and at present it is one large room. This will have to be walled of and fitted up according to the suggestions of those who are going to use it. The windows of this big apartment all face on the courtyard, but there is plenty of light. EARL OF ELGIN'S GARTER.

is at the Head. London, Feb. 2.-To give a conception of the high distinction shown to the Earl of Elgin by making him a Knight of the Garter, it is but necessary to mention that besides Queen Victoria and the Prince of Wales there are but 47 Knights of the Garter. The members of the order are for the most part royal personages, among whom are the Emperor of Germany, the Emperor of Austra, the Emperor of Russia, the Sultan of Turkey and other European sov-

The Order of the Garter is the oldest and The Order of the Garter is the oldest and most highly esteemed in the world. It is said to have been founded by King Edward III., in 1344, but some claim-even an earlier origin for it. The garter itself is of dark blue velvet, edged with gold, bearing the inscription, "Honi soit qui mally pense." Besides a magnificent mantle and hood, the insignia proper consists of a golden collar consisting of 26 pieces each in the form of a garter, enamelied azure. On the collar is suspended a piece known as the George, representing St. George on horseback, encountering the dragon. This is of massive gold.

The number of non-Royal Knights of the Garter is fimited to 25. New members are only selected upon death of the old. The list previous additions to the order were Barl Derby and the Duke of Buccleuch.

The Earl of Elgin is the present head of the famous Bruce family of Scotland.

Dirt for Canadians.

The New York Sun had an editorial yesterday, written on a Globe article, commenting on another article in The Outlook, a religious weekly, which spoke of the "radical defect in the training of character in the United States. The Sun says things are better than they were 50 years ago in the United States, but could not errike back without its usual insult of Canadians. Read this: "As to Canada, very much the same can be said truthfully, though it is a region outside of the current of progress, a mere province without individuality of its own, and backward in all things as compared with "the States." It is a community which scarcely grows at all in population, its most enterprising spirits gravitating naturally to this country; but its condition in every respect affecting comfort of living has grown better during this generation. Even its rather stagnant society has been stirred up to the progress which has distinguished the second half of this marvelous century." Dirt for Canadians.

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 2.—At the Imperial Athletic Club last evening "Doc" Kennedy of Rochester received the (decision over "Kid" Hogan of Buffalo, after fighting nine rounds. The men were scheduled to fight 20 rounds at $15 pounds. Hogan had the advantage in height and reach and fought aggressively during the first three rounds. Honors were even after the fourth round. Kennedy had the advantage in the ninth. finally knocking Hogan out. The fighting was fierce throughout. In the preliminary Kid McCarthy of Buffalo and Charley Hankins of Chicago fought a sixround draw. A fair-sized crowd witnessed the contests.

Burned Himself to Death. San Francisco, Feb. 2.—A horrible swicide occurred to-day in the San Francisco jail, and two prisoners/narrowly escaped death. Anthony Burgle, a 70-year-old man, secured some coal-oll from the stove which was used to heat the cell, and poured it over his clothes, while the other prisoners were asleep. He then ignited the oil, and in a few seconds his body was enveloped in flames. The cell caught fire, and the sleeping cell mates were barely saved by the guards. Burgle lived but a short time.

Charges Are False.

In The Globe of to-day we have charges against me, but there's another charge made in that petition spread over the country to take the edge off West Elgin, and these charges are against the St. Anthony Lumber Company, which is a lie, and Mr. Hardy and all know it is not true. As a shareholder I say these charges are false and I cannot allow that charge to go by, as the manager and vice-president is a telative of mine.

To Punish Bribers.

In regard to bribery, Mr. Whitney con,

Now. If the Government is prepared to provide six months' imprisonment for bribers it will be all right and we will meet it, not to punish the man who is bribed. Any other attempt to deal with this question will be the most supreme kind of folly. "Regarding lumber, we are not afraid of British influence, and are ready to stand by the Government. I am not afraid of what the Premier of Canada was afraid of and as this is a provincial matter, I am prepared to vote with the Government against the giving away of the embargo on longs going out of this province." [Loud applause.]

PREMIER HARDY IN REPLY. PREMIER HARDY IN REPLY.

Then, A. S. Hardy, in his opening remarks, replying to Mr. Whitney, said that at the previous session the Opposition had pointed out that there were two vacancies in the Dabinet. The Government had promised that the Commissioner of Crown Lands and the Minister of Agriculture would be back, and it had kept its word. Another step had been taken—the addition of another person to the Cahinet, the member for West Huron, who was a distinct acquisition, both from his abilities as a lawyer and a legislator, as well as from his high character and intellectual power. Mr. Whitney did not, in his sremarks, make any complaint regarding. s remarks, make any complaint regarding r. Garrow being taken into the Cabinet at his party press did complain.

Mr. Hardy would have been glad if his honorable friend had expressed his pleasure regarding the constable vote. The Government side of the House could congratulate itself that the Court of Appeal was unanimous in upholding the views expressed by every member on that side of the House. The summer session had paved the way for that decision. Had it not been for the summer session he had reason to believe that there would have been no decision at all, and the Court of Appeal would have beel to-day wrestling with it in various stages.

Mr. Whitney: "He was not."
Mr. Hardy: "He has not said so himself."
Mr. Foy: "My honorable friend has been told twice it was not."
Mr. Hardy (alluding to Mr. Whitney):
"Then perhaps it was my honorable friend."
[Laughter.]

mmmmm immmmm

At a Prize Fight.

"I could hardly account for my honorable friend's savageness to-day, but it has since occurred to me that he was out visiting last night at a smoking concert, at which there was a prize fight." [Laughter.] He had noted that his honorable friends from South Toronto and West Toronto were also there. The papers did not say whether the slugging match was with or without gloves, but that was, no doubt, why Mr. Whitney w25 "full of savageness."

The Lord's Day Act. The Lord's Day Act.

Mr. Whitney had said the Lord's Day Act had been "kicked out of the House." The courts were established to interpret legislation—that was what indges were appointed for and paid for. An act passed hundreds of years ago was being attributed to this Legislature. What interest did Mr. Whitney take in the Lord's Day Act? What side was he on? He was bottling himself up and would not say. Denies Corruption.

Mr. Hardy referred at some length to cross-petitions and bye-elections. There were tribunals to determine who was right and who was wrong. His honorable friend had discussed the question as though he had discovered much corruption. Is it true what has been disclosed? Let the courts decide. He said that the Opposition claim that $200,000 had been spent fillegitimately in the elections had been disproven. They had not shown that $100 had been wrongly spent.

Col. Matheson: What about whiskey?

Mr. Hardy: Not as much I understand as my honorable friend would spend in a month. I venture to say there was not as much whiskey used as there was in a train on which Mr. Corby and his friends were

To Punish Bribers.

In regard to bribery, Mr. Whitney con, tinued, perhaps it is the intention of the Government to bring forth legislation to punish bribers. In 1889 I brought up such a bill, similar to that in England and in the Dominion. My bill was voted down and thrown out by the Government, one of the reasons given being that nothing in it provided for trial by jury. The bill was introduced again next year with this provision inserted and the same member who opposed it because of the lack of the clause, got up in his seat and said his great objection to it was that there was a provision regarding jurors. Juries would be packed, he said, so I let it go for the third year.

Now, If the Government is prepared to continue. The decimal of the week little regular business will be done. The heavy work will begin next week. A night session was held last night, and will be uns week, but it is not yet known whether this will be no surprises to continue. There will be no surprises to

Copital of the Stanley Plano Co., Limited, Increased From $30,-

Davis, Mayor of Peterboro, is principally interested and is president of the new company, which has just been granted power to increase its capital from $30,000 to $250,000. The company has on its directorate the names of some of the most prominent capitalists in Toronto.

HALL CAINE'S BANQUET.

The Novelist Talks About the Gens erous Country Across the Ocean. Liverpool, Feb. 2.—Hall Caine, the novel-ist, was ententained to-night at a public banquet at Douglas, in the Isle of Man, Lord Henniker, the Manx Governor, pre-

Mr. Caine related how Rossettl first in-fluenced him to write the Manx stories which have found a generous audience in many lands, "particularly in that great and generous country across the Atlantic which has always been so good to him." He eulogized the Manx home rule, believ-ing that England would ultimately adopt the American home rule universally.

and the Court of Appeal would have been to-day wrestling with it in various stages.

Who Was "Lex?"

The Premier referred to a letter of "Lex," stating that the prorogation was illegal, and inferred from Mr. Whitney's remarks that the member for South Toronto was "Lex."

Mr. Whitney: "I said the honorable gentleman from South Toronto discovered the blunder. I did not say he was "Lex." As a matter of fact he was not."

Mr. Hardy said the discovery was a poor one, with a foundation of dust and sand and sawdust, and he quoted the Act to show that the prorogation was legal. He was rather inclined to think that if the member for South Toronto was under cross-examination as to whether he was "Lex" it would be different.

Mr. Whitney: "He was not."
