of Canada believe in it, and the people of Canada will have no other preference than one which is mutual, as laid down in this statement of Sir John A. Macdonald. In this statement of Sir John A. Macdonald. Sir John A. Macdonald never needed to sacrifice the interests of Canada; he had no record which compelled him to do so; and when it came to an issue between the rights and interests of Canada and the desires of England, he always put the interests of Canada first. If any hon, gentleman doubts that let him read Pope's history of his life, as I have been reading it in the last few days, especially in connection with the Washington Treaty.

They are buildozers, men of trade as between the Americans and ourselves. I myself believe in tariff for tariff. I believe in the Last fill any hon, gentleman doubts that let him read Pope's history of his life, as I have been reading it in the last few days, especially in connection with the Washington Treaty.

He was becomen the Americans and ourselves. I myself believe the Americans to their senses and make them respect our rights in connection with our fisheries and the Alaskan boundary and in other matters. There has never been the slightest trace of magnanimity in their attitude towards us or any other smaller products. He was besought day after day by the English members of the commission to sacrifice the Canadian fisheries; but he the United States is the most vulnerable record as being for giving a preference to the United States. They are on record as sacrificing Canadian industries in order to give a begus preference to the Mother Country—a begus preference which I do not believe in. I would sooner take the word of Sir John A. Macdonald in regard to the Views of the Canadian people in the matter of a preference to England; and here are his views on that subject. Contained in a letter written by him on April 6, 1891:

While Canada cannot promise a reduction of duties, she will be quite ready to give British goods a preference in our markets, if our products receive a corresponding preference in England.

We hold that view to-day; the people of Canada believe in it, and the people giving them our markets. Now, the day

Don't Grab at Shadows!

If you do, you will surely lose substances. Don't try this thing and that thing and every thing you see advertised as a cough medicine. will be simply running after shadows.

Grasp at once the real substance,—a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For sixty years it has been curing asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping-cough, hoarseness, loss of voice, la grippe, weak throat, soreness in the chest, and even consumption itself.

Shadows cannot do this. It takes solid merit.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral since early in 1853. And I have used it a great deal in my family. I have always found it to be the very best of remedies for coughs, colds, and all throat and lung troubles." J. O'NEILL, Pittsburg, Pa.

To keep on hand you will like the $1.00 size best, and you will need this amount to cure a chronic or very severe case. The 50c. size is just about right for bronchitis, hoarseness, la grippe, croup, etc. The 25c. size is convenient when traveling, and is enough to break up a fresh cold-J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.
