Gossip of the Turf.

According to horsemen at Baltimore, the program to be run at the spring meeting there, beginning on April 24, is being prepared and will be issued on March 15. It is said that liberal provision will be made for all classes of horses.

Irving H. Wheatcroft, a resident of British Columbia, is welcomed as a newcomer on the turf, and is the owner at present of more than 130 horses of all ages. He is racing a stable at Los Angeles. His trainer is Lew Marion, who once handled the famous Yo Tambien.

In addition to the other well-known American turfmen who have made nominations for the great steeplechase and lurdle races to be run at Auteuil on June 20 and 22, W. K. Vanderbilt has entered his horse Herkimer. Gossip of the Turf.
