ROUGH PLAY IN LACROSSE WHAT SHALL REMEDY BE ?

Ottawa Journal: What shall be the remedy for the elimination of the rough element from lacrosse? One of the most important issues of the day in the lacrosse world, and state of affairs that calls for the earnest consideration of every man interested in the welfare and growth of our great national game, is the element of rough-ness, which at present mars the big league games.

There is nothing that will kill acrosse quicker than the sight of one payer deliberately slugging another, in the presence of thousands of special terms of the sight of the payer deliberately slugging another, in the presence of thousands of special terms of the sight of the tators, and a remedy for this is being eagerly looked for.

Mr. A. S. Robertson, manager of the Capitals, has offered a few suggestions in regard to keeping the game clean, and these will be brought up at the annual meeting of the N.L.U. in Mont-real next spring. Mr. Robertson's plans are somewhat identical with the manner in which the National Baseball Commission looks after its players, and as the scheme has worked out satisfactorily across the border, there is no reason why the National Lacrosse Union cannot adopt the proposed rules and put them in force next summer. The suggestions are, that any player who deliberately slugs another over the head be banished from the game, being fined in addition, while his team is allowed to bring out a substitute so that the members of the bulk will be
