Ref.: Your Letter February 23 rd 1909. No. 16421

Sir,

I have the honour to say, as stated to you in my Letter of even number of the 25 th ultimo, that I will at as early a date as is possible let the Department have the information requested.

I have noted the vacant Lands which you mention; and will endeavour to have the location of the proposed new Reserve situated to the Department's perfect satisfaction.

Yours obediently

J. P. Day
