CITY COURT SAT ALL DAY

Officials of the city court were kept busy yesterday when morning, noon and night sessions were held.

The case of George Keirstead vs. Hiram Humphrey to recover $7.50, the value of six bags of feed sold by him to the defendant, and charged Jas. Flower, who denies receiving them, was heard and decision reserved.

The case of Wellington Logan vs. Capt. McLean, of tug Waring, for damage to fishing nets, was resumed and after the claims of both parties had been set forth adjournment was made for argument.

A third case was the suit brought by one Silvermans to recover a sum of money from one Hers, lent for the purpose of obtaining goods. J. B. M. Baxter appeared for the plaintiff and B. L. Gerow represented Hers. This case was adjourned before the completion of the evidence, as Mr. Gerow objected and the court rose about 11 o'clock last evening.

A fourth case in which the parties were represented by R. G. Murray and W. H. Trueman, was set for hearing but was not taken up.

The adjourned cases will be resumed on Wednesday morning next.

Owing to the rush of city court business the Harrington-DeAngelis case which was set for 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was postponed until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

NEW FACTORY FOR SUSSEX

The H. H. Dryden Limited, Sussex has secured property from G. W. Fowler, M. P., on Court street, Sussex, where the valley stables have stood. The new owners will commence the erection of a large tinware factory withing a few days. Plans have been prepared and the contract for the work practically let. The factory will be served by a railway siding ond its location is one of the finest manufacturing sites in the town. The cost of handling freight inward and outward will be reduced to a minimum. A large amount of money will have to be expended to provide additional plant required in the new structure. H. H. Dryden, president of the company, is busily engaged in arranging the details of the enterprise.

RECORD BLUEBERRY CROP

The Sussex Record says: New Brunswick is going to have a record blueberry crop this year and every one remarks on the uncommon size of the fruit by contrast with last season. The Sussex Packing Company are planning to can large quantities and the can shop is a busy place these days. They report the market good and sales made as far west as Alberta, ten cars in all. This quantity involves the use of over 130,000 cans and 120 tons of berries, so that the boys and girls will not want for work while it lasts. Berries will be shipped from all over the province as far west as St. George and north to Grand Anse.

AN OLD TIME BOAT RACE

Yesterday's Halifax Record in its events of 30 years ago says:

The single scull race between Wallace Ross, of St. John, N. B., and Warren Smith, of Halifax, N. S., came off this evening on the Kennebeccasis River, which resulted in the defeat of the Halifax oarsman. After turning the buoy, and when about half the distance of the homestretch had been rowed, Smith fell out of his boat. He was leading by a third of a boat length at the time of the accident. Ross finished the course and was awarded the race. Smith was rescued by tugs, and gave as an explanation that the button of his right hand oar catching in the patent rowlock, caused him to catch a crab and upset.

MOTOR BOAT RACE

The R. K. Y. C. gasoline motor boat race takes place at Millidgeville tomorrow. Entries for the race will close with J. H. Kimball, secretary of the sailing committee, at six o'clock this evening.
