OBITUARY

Mrs. A. M. Jordan The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Jordan, widow of W. M. Many will regret to hear of her death.

Winslow G. Small St. Stephen, N. B., Oct. 24.—(Special)—A very sudden death occurred here this afternoon. Winslow G. Small, a much respected resident of Lawrence Station, came to town this morning, accompanied by his little granddaughter. Robinson's, with assistance, carried him into the store and summoned Dr. W. H. McLaughlin, who was just driving by; but before any assistance could be given, he passed away. Valvular heart trouble was the cause. Mr. Small was a seventy-eight years of age. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Harrison Dunn, of Lawrence Station, and two sons, Harry and Frank. The body was sent for interment by C. P. R. to Lawrence Station this evening.

CONCERT WAS RARE TREAT

Madame Harrison's Concert at the Opera House Last Night—The Musical Event of the Season.

Those whose privilege it was to attend the grand concert given by Madame Yulisse Harrison and other artists at the Opera House last night, heard what was easily the musical event of the season. The programme, of course, was of a high standard, including some of the most difficult numbers in Madame Harrison's repertoire. There was a representative audience and the concert was a pronounced success from the artistic point of view. Frank Armstrong, who was born in this city, but has lived since childhood in Victoria, B. C., has been studying in Leipzig, and is making a brief visit in St. John, on his way home. His first selection last night was taken from the works of Rubinstein for violin and piano. The violin part was very ably rendered by Mr. Armstrong, and Mr. Fox proved himself fully equal to the demands made upon him. Mr. Armstrong shows thorough familiarity with his instrument, and his bowing and technique, together with the possibilities of a magnificent instrument, made his work particularly acceptable. He contributed three groups, the most pleasing of which were Oberste's Mazurka, and Dvorak's Little Humoresque, one of the encore numbers. Madame Harrison was received with enthusiastic applause, and was never heard to better advantage. The tuneful aria from Mirella and the difficult passages in Le Perle de Brésil were beautifully rendered, the former selection affording the opportunity of hearing her take the natural B above high C, which very few singers can accomplish. Most unfortunately Harry Blight, of Toronto, suffering from a severe cold, but his rendering of The Young Brigade elicited enthusiastic applause and he was obliged to respond to an encore. Miss Florence Rogers, who is ever a favorite in St. John, where she is well known as an elocutionist of exceptional ability, delighted her hearers with her rendering of The Broken Vow, by Sir Gilbert Parker. Madame Harrison followed with Godard's violin concerto Romanza, and as an encore played Dvorak's Humoresque. As the concluding number of the first part, Madame Harrison rendered with beautiful effect, Scenes That Are Brightest, from Maritana, and, as an encore, Jock O' Haddan. Just before the opening of the second part of the programme, it was announced that owing to a severe cold, Miss Cavendish would be unable to appear, and her place was taken by Miss Pauline Biedermann, who played Liezt's Cantique Jocunda, which gave ample opportunity for good technique. Miss Biedermann is well known as a talented local pianist and her excellent work is ever acceptable to St. John audiences. In the following number Madame Harrison achieved her greatest success, in The Broken Bird, by David. The little obligato was very nicely rendered by J. W. V. Stokes. Burst after burst of applause followed this number, and the artists were obliged to give Le, here the Gentle Lark, by Bishop. Three delightful numbers were given by Mr. Blight, Miss Rogers and Mr. Armstrong, and the concert was brought to a close by Delibes' Indian Bell song, in which Madame Harrison's wonderful voice was heard to greatest possible advantage. She was greeted with enthusiastic applause, giving The Rosary as an encore.

MAJOR GORDON WANTS $17,000 Says He Will Take This Sum in Settlement of His Claim Against the City.

The claims committee yesterday heard Major J. J. Gordon with reference to his claims against the city for his property adjoining Union street, west side. Hon. H. A. McKewen was present in the interests of Major Gordon, and the recorder for the city. Major Gordon, it is understood, offered to accept $17,000 in full settlement of his claim, but the committee considered this amount out of all reason. Nothing was decided in the matter.

POLICE COURT

Nelson Nichols, who was arrested early last evening by Patrolman George Henry, appeared in the police court this morning on a fourfold charge, viz, drunkenness, indecent conduct, obscene language and violently resisting the police in the discharge of their duty. Nichols pleaded guilty only to the charge of drunkenness and was remanded. Joseph Dixon, who interfered with the police in the arrest of Nichols, and was taken into custody by Patrolman William H. Finley, was also remanded. Bayard Powell, who was arrested by Patrolman McCollum, forfeited a deposit on a charge of drunkenness. Felix Holland, who has been in jail on a charge of drunkenness, was today released from custody on payment of his fine by one of his friends.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES The annual meeting of the Associated Charities will be held in the Board of Trade rooms at eight o'clock on Tuesday evening next. Reports on the year's work will be submitted by the president, J. B. Cudlip, by the secretary, Mrs. Hall, and by the treasurer, J. Hunter White. Arrangements are being made for a number of addresses by prominent citizens, who are interested in and have some knowledge of the work. The programme has not yet been completed, but among those who have promised to speak are Judge Ritchie, Rev. G. A. Kuhring, Dr. F. Roberts, and Mayor Sears. Bishop Richardson has also been invited to attend and will do so if he can arrange it. All who are in any way interested in the work are requested to be present.

A GREAT HUNT

T. H. Estabrooke and W. S. Fisher, with George E. Fisher, of Chatham, lately spent a week in the Baribogue woods after moose. They had a most enjoyable outing, but got no moose. They say several cow moose, and were quite close to two of them, but the antlered lords of the forest kept out of sight. One very exciting incident enlivened the trip. One of the St. John men discovered a bear one day, and with thoughts of President Roosevelt welling up in his bosom he said, "Hist!" to the rest of the party and proceeded to stalk the game. The porcupine got away.
