NOVA SCOTIA COAST IS IN A DANGEROUS CONDITION, SAY STEAMSHIP CAPTAINS

Halifax, Dec. 20.—"I have never in all my experience seen the aids to navigation along the western shore of Nova Scotia in such a disordered state as they are at present," declared Captain J. McKinnon of the Seniac, today, and he declared that the present state of affairs is fraught with great danger to life and property.

As reported at the time of the loss of the Kildona, the Brazil buoy has gone to sea. The buoy at Blonde Rock has gone adrift and the buoy at Pulpit Rock is missing from its proper position. To the westward of Yarmouth, Captain McKinnon says he noticed that two buoys off Brer Island are missing.

Capt. Jacobson of the steamer Tanke said he had looked for the Brazil Rock buoy in vain. The buoy at Blonde Rock has gone adrift and the buoy at Pulpit Rock is missing from its proper position. To the westward of Yarmouth, Captain McKinnon says two buoys off Brer Island are missing. Under such conditions navigation of the coast cannot be carried on with the slightest degree of safety and pending repairs he advocates that the widest publicity should be given. Both Capt. McKinnon and Capt. Crowell stated that to keep aids to navigation between Halifax and St. John in proper order would require the constant services of two well equipped steamers.

AT THE PRINCESS

The new bill at the Princess yesterday proved full of attractive novelties. The leading feature was a magnificent motion picture taken during the visit of the king and queen to Dublin exhibition and showing their majesties at close range, created much enthusiasm, especially when King Edward lifts his hat to the Princess patron.

The other subjects were all new and interesting. Comedy was well represented in the picture entitled "The My Hair" Master as "General," and Weary Willie tries to kiss the bride. Lumbering in Norway proved a clever and instructive series, showing men and horses at work in the woods. An Economical Trip was a novelty which created amusement. The new illustrated song, "You're the Brightest Star of All My Dreams," sung by Miss Margaret Lee at each performance, secured a decided hit.

AT THE NICKEL

The new show at the Nickel will repeat its hit today, particularly when the children flock to the big, cosy, clean theatre. It is a wholesome entertainment for old and young and the six new pictures were greatly enjoyed yesterday. Despite the shopping activity the attendance is keeping up wonderfully and thus proves the popularity of the Nickel. The show for the children today will be as follows: Railway Journey in Australia, Trip to the Bottom of the Sea, What Happened to Jones, Surf Bathing in Honolulu, The Colonel's Youngster, and The Poor Old Couple. It is an hour of motion pictures the little ones will be benefited by seeing; two new songs, one by Master Hanlon.
