

THE MITRE & KEYS, are Popish ensigns of Ecclesiastical power assumed by Episcopal Bishops contrary to the letter and spirit of the New Testament.

THE SKELETON AND SKULLS,
Are fit emblems of the spiritual desolation and ruin which generally exist under their unhallowed sway.

'The Dead are there.'

"Thou hast tried them who say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars," REV. II. 2.

THE APOSTOLICAL SUCCESSION.

"A figment of Popery"—A stronghold of Priestcraft—A grand fraud upon the World.

That the Apostles of Christ had any successors as to authority is absurd and untrue; first, because the Bible is silent upon the subject, and second, because it is morally impossible; but that all Christians are their successors as to Spiritual character, privileges and hopes is most evident.

1st. THERE IS NO SUCCESSION AS TO AUTHORITY.

P. S. The Reader is requested to refer to the passages of Scripture quoted.

The Apostles of Christ.

The Apostles always appealed to the judgment of men, as to their authority—giving them the fullest evidence, and they exhibited their qualifications, commission, powers and seal, openly to the world.

Sight.

They all saw the Son of God. Paul says "am I not an Apostle—have I not seen the Lord," I. Cor. IX. I. See also Acts I. 3 and I. Cor. XV. 5.

Their pretended Successors

The pretended "successors" always appeal to the credulity of men, giving no evidence having neither Apostolic qualifications, commission, power, nor seal to shew to the world.

Without Sight.

They cannot even pretend to possess this first essential feature in the character of an authorised apostolic messenger.
