GOOD REPORTS TO DIRECTORS ONLY W.C.A. WORK

Gymnasium, Travelers' Aid, Halloween Festival and Other Matters Discussed

Good reports were submitted at a meeting of the directors of the Y. W. C. A. yesterday afternoon.

Among the new plans for the Halloween festival decided upon yesterday were the serving of refreshments in the evening of the two days. Mrs. J. D. Hunter was appointed convener of the committee to have charge of the evening refreshments.

It was announced that the Rotary Club would assist in providing a short program for each evening and that the Y. W. C. A. would conduct a mock abate each evening when there would also be dances by some of the gymnasium pupils under the direction of Miss Hazel McCready.

Miss E. R. Holt's pupils of the art school were making posters for advertising and the Loyalist Temple, No. 18, Pythian sisters, were taking charge of the baby booth. All of the conveners submitted good reports of progress.

The report of the physical department submitted by Miss Hazel McCready was most gratifying. There were already 126 pupils enrolled in the classes, although the opening of the women's class had been deferred until the first of next month. Swimming

Truer Tinting

New method just brought from New York by Miss McGrath, restores the hue of your hair nearer to nature, more uniform and lustrous. Does not fade out purple or red like other tints. Any tint you wish to match samples of old hair. Be fair to your hair.

The Very Coat I Require

I choose my own design from a whole flock of pictures rushed here from Fifth Avenue.

I change it a bit here and there to suit my own fancy.

I know for sure how well it suits my taste.

And then I come to the color, lining, fabric and fur I would like it made up from.

Since it doesn't cost me any more to have my Coat made to my own ideas, and full satisfaction is guaranteed, why I find it great to deal with classes at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday and Friday mornings were being arranged for and the girls were getting ready for a track meet to be held at the South End grounds on Oct. 30. Tonight a meeting for organization of a Basketball League was to be held.

GIRLS' WORK

In the report of the girls' work Miss E. Poore, general secretary, told of the very successful rummage sale conducted by the members of the Overseas Club, under the direction of their leaders, Miss Genevieve Mercer and Miss Lucy Charlton, assisted by Mrs. H. T. Campbell, Miss I. Johnson, Mrs. Graham, Miss P. Hoyt, Miss E. Poore, Miss Edna Hunt, Miss Clara Boone, Miss Laura Mercereau, Miss E. Estabrooks, Miss V. Estabrooks, Miss J. Black, Miss Shaw, Miss Bertha Barnes and Miss Evelyn Purdon.

The rummage sale realized $41.20 and the girls were hoping to bring the sum to $50 to make a special donation to the Travelers' Aid work. While the Overseas Club has as yet a comparatively small membership it is

TRAVELERS' AID REPORT.

The Travelers' Aid report showed that the two workers, Miss F. Hoyt and Miss M. Kirke, had been very busy and had helped many strangers and many cases of special need. They had met 255 trains and 17 boats, assisting large numbers of travelers. They found employment for two overseas girls in a city hotel, helped children traveling alone, aided a foreign woman with three children going to join her husband and cared for a woman with three children who was detained by the United States immigration authorities.

The meeting decided that the Y. W. C. A. would co-operate with the Y. M. C. A. in the observance of the week of prayer commencing Nov. 14.

Miss E. Poore and Mrs. T. H. Somerville were appointed to represent the Y. W. C. A. on the Girls' Leaders' Council for the city.

ATHLETIC NIGHT IN ST. DAVID'S HALL

Close Badminton Matches Played Last Evening—Other Games Also Enjoyed

St. David's Church Hall was the scene of an athletic night last evening, when the contests were held in connection with the opening of Memorial Hall, under the auspices of the Fraternal Club.

Badminton was the feature of the evening and several close matches were noted. The men's singles went to Andrew Malcolm with stern opposition being offered by I. Stirling.

The men's doubles went to Andrew Malcolm and I. Stirling after some hard battling. The ladies' singles were won by Miss Hazel Dunlop and Mrs. Murray Nixon after three hard sets, the score being, 2-15, 15-10 and

NEW MINISTER AND WIFE ARE GIVEN WELCOME

Rev. D. B. and Mrs. Knott Tendered Reception Last Evening

The welcome and reception held in honor of Rev. D. B. Knott, B. A., pastor-elect of Central Baptist church, and Mrs. Knott was a highly successful function in the church auditorium and vestry suite last evening, close upon 300 members of the church and congregation being present.

Representatives of the other denominations extended their greetings as well as officials of the Salvation Army and Y. M. C. A. Deacon L. A. Belyes, the chairman, in an informal address and with a hearty handshake, welcomed the new pastor into the flock. Rev. Mr. Knott replied feelingly and later in the evening Mrs. Knott was presented with a sheet of chrysanthemums.

After congregational singing, Rev. A. Lawrence Tedford read the scriptures and Rev. I. B. Colwell prayed. The chairman read the regrets of Rev. James Dunlop, Rev. W. I. Newton, Rev. J. W. Wetmore and a few others, who had previous engagements, but those who tendered the greetings of their churches spoke highly of Rev. Mr. Knott. Rev. E. R. MacWilliams, of Victoria; Rev. W. J. Johnston, of Coburg street; Major F. H. Knight, the new N. B. N. S. command of the Salvation Army, and Gen. Sec. A. M. Gregg, of the Y. M. C. A. Other clergymen present were Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, Rev. M. S. Richardson, Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, of Trinity.

At the reception which followed in the Sunday school suite—transformed into a drawing room—other clergymen dropped in and partook of tea, spending a social half hour. The musical program included vocal solos by Mrs. Aubrey McKee and Mrs. G. H. McKel, and a violin-organ duo by Miss Beryl Blanch and Bruce E. Holder. During the service of refreshments an oration, phonetic recital was discoursed.

The ladies of the church were assisted in an immaculately laid table laden with silverware and fine china and lighted with silk-shaded floor lamps. Mr. George H. Morris and Mrs. W. Herbert Downie poured. The serving was in charge of Miss Rae Wilson, who had a corps of young ladies from the Philathea class and girls at her hand. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Knott were assisted in receiving by Deacon J. J. Gillies and Mrs. Gillies. On behalf of the young people present Mrs. Knott was presented with chrysanthemums by little Primie Stegmann, of the Sunday school juniors.

Interesting Report Of Juvenile Meeting

A very interesting report of the golden jubilee meeting of the Eastern Division of the Women's Missionary Society recently held in Halifax was given at the meeting of Knox church Presbyterian W. M. S. held on Monday evening, Mrs. Mrs. R. A. Sewell, president, in the chair. Rev. W. L. Newton, the minister, was present and took part in the devotional exercises. There was a large attendance of members. Mrs. Melrose gave a comprehensive and instructive review of the Halifax meeting and was tendered a hearty vote of thanks. Mrs. Melrose stated that all of the auxiliaries in the Eastern Division had a representative at Halifax. Dr. McMillan, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, was also present.

14-12. The mixed doubles provided the most excitement during the evening. Miss Helen Hannah and W. A. McLagan winning out from Andrew Malcolm and Miss Morrison after three hard sets, 15-10, 4-15 and 17-14. Basketball and volleyball completed the evening's entertainment. A large crowd was present at the games.

Youthful Elegance

Weddings

Baxter-Lamb.

A wedding of much interest took place in Silver Falls United church at 8 o'clock last evening when Rev. Hugh Miller, pastor of the church, united in marriage Miss Mamie Agnes Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lamb, of Silver Falls, and Robert William Baxter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Baxter, of Saint John. The church was beautifully decorated by the girl friends of the bride with maple leaves, cut flowers and potted plants. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Marjorie Wason. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked very charming in a gown of powder blue georgette over flat silk crepe. The groom had crystal and pearl trimmings. The bride wore grey shoes and stockings, a black velvet picture hat and a fox fur, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of opelia roses. She was attended by Miss Edith Madill, who wore a gown of watermelon crepe, black velvet hat and mink stole and carried a bouquet of opelia roses. Little Doris Smith, niece of the bride, wearing a dainty frock of blue crepe and a little Lenore Brittain prettily dressed in mauve crepe, were the flower girls, and each carried a basket of sweet peas. The bridegroom was supported by Noble Lamb, brother of the bride. Percy Buckley and Gordon Lamb, brother of the bride, ushered the guests to reserved pews marked with bows of white ribbon. During the signing of the register Miss Marjorie Wason sang O Perfect Love. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the bridal party left the church.

After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the Admiral Beatty Hotel, where the wedding supper was served. For traveling the bride wore a blue redingite coat with hat to match. Many beautiful gifts, including articles of silver and cut glass, were received, as well as several substantial checks, testifying to the high esteem in which the young couple are held. The gift of the bride's mother was a silver tea service, and of the groom's mother, a Limoges china tea set. The groom's gifts to the bride included many rings with pearl settings; to the best man an onyx tie pin with pearl setting; to the flower girls, gold rings, one set with an emerald and one set with an amethyst; to the organist, a gold piece, and to the ushers, gold tie pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter left this morning for a wedding trip to Boston and other cities in the United States. On their return they will reside in Yishart street, Saint John. They have many friends who extend best wishes for their future happiness.
