That Is Belief in Ottawa -

(Canadian Press.)

Ottawa, Feb. 24-It is generally understood in government circles here that derstood in government circles here that a successor will not be appointed to Hon. A. K. Maclean, whose resignation as a member of the cabinet without portfolio was announced last night. There was some talk that Mr. Maclean would accept the portfolio of public works but as his acceptance of this position would entail a by-election, he decided against acceptance.

It is also generally understood here that the government is prepared to carry out a policy of a reduction of portfolios. The amalgamation of the railways and canals department and the public works is much to the fore at present, but no action is expected until the return of action is expected until the return of Hon. J. D. Reid, minister of railways, who is now in Florida. Hon. N. W. Rowell is acting minister of public works.

Just think! That is the time through which Mr. H. C. Buckley endured all the fiery torture of itching, burning eczema. His life was a perfect misery until Zam-Buk—the great herbal skin cure brought complete relief.

Mr. Buckley, who lives at 461
East Broadway, Portland, Oregon,
writes:—"For fifteen years I suffered with eczema, and although I tried many so-called 'eczema cures,' nothing seemed capable of dealing with a case like mine. It was not until I had Zam-Buk recommended to me that I began to have hope. This wonderful skin healer soon brought about a change for the better. As I persevered with Zam-Buk the burning sensation got less. I found Zam-Buk wonderfully sooth-ing. Gradually the patches of sore-ness and the inflammation were re-duced, and complete and permanent cure finally resulted. I would strongly advise all afflicted with eczema to give Zam-Buk a trial. It will give them satisfaction. They will not be disappointed."

Tom Marks Opens Engagement at Queen Square Theatre — Drama and Vaudeville Enjoyed. St. John enjoyed a revival of the old stock company days when Tom Marks and his company opened a two weeks' engagement before a packed house in the Queen square Theatre last evening. The opening piece of the company's repertoire was a four-act comedy drama, entitled "The Girl Over There," and the repeated applause and hearty laughter which was indulged in by the audience which was indulged in by the audience gave evidence that the piece went well.

The story is a simple one and with few variations, resembles several of the comedy-dramas of the days gone by. It was a good clean show all the way through, however, and this is a pleasing feature.

Miss Arline Marks, as the heroine of the piece, Flotsam, made a large number of friends by her performance last night, and Tom Marks, as Captain Barton, also met with the approval of the audience. Gavin Dorothy handled the part of Joey Clark, a breezy, humorous sailor man, whose persistence finally won for him the hand of the buxom wildow. Cousin Simonson, which part was handled with vim by Miss Bessie Hawthorne.

Other characters which completed the cast were Mrs. Elmer, taken by Miss Gertrade Hughes; her son, Edward, played by L. E. Perrin, and Ben Cook, portrayed by C. C. Allen.
