The many St. John people who had personal acquaintance with the late Rev. C. T. Phillips, D. D., for five years pastor of the Waterloo street Baptist church, will read with interest a little book that is being printed by Barnes & Co. of this city. The volume, "Maple Leaves and Other Sketches by Thaddeus," is edited by Rev. Dr. McLeod and is a compliation of the Government of Dr. Phillips' that through The Evening Star and the Religious Intelligencer made their way very deep into the hearts of people. Dr. Phillips understood the trag. In the latest and most popular designs, have been arriving almost daily from the most famous style centres the world over, many of the smartest and most distinctly a within the life of nearly all in more or less degree. His spoken words have cheered and encouraged hundreds, and his sketches with their mingled humor and pathos, will be prized by many. One of M. R. A's King street windows is used to display the many lines of knit undergarments to be found in their ladies' underwear department. The approach of cooler weather emphasizing the need of heavier underclothing makes this exhibit of timely interest. So many different kinds of domestic and imported underwear are sold by this firm that their bright, fresh stocks invariably attract the buyer who appreciates the advantage of choosing from immense assortments of all qualities.
