East Northfield, Mass., Aug. 7—Christians who dance, play cards or go to the theatre cannot be successful in their Christian work, said Dr. R. A. Torrey, the evangelist, while delivering an address before the delegates at the Northfield conference. His listeners were greatly surprised by this and several other statements he made. Dr. Torrey started the latter part of the month for an evangelistic tour of Great Britain.

the city are also included in the transactions.

R. Max McCarthy, broker, has been acting for the purchasers and one of the principals is in the city. The first authoritative announcement was made yesterday at the common council when Mr. McCarthy on behalf of the same people, made an offer for the Greenhead property. The projected works at Courtenay Bay and proposed transcontinental terminus have attracted buyers here who see a great future for St. John.

The Durant refinery site, according to a statement made by Ald. Kierstead yesterday, is wanted by a large company composed of St. John men for a manufacturing plant.
