

THE

“Christian Journal”

NEWSPAPER.

The CHRISTIAN JOURNAL has succeeded beyond the most sanguine expectations of its Friends, and as a Religious and Temperance Journal, it has already been extensively useful.

Its Seventh Volume will commence in July, 1864, at which time we fully expect all our Subscribers will renew their subscriptions, and pay them to the Ministers in their neighborhoods, or remit them by letter to “The Editors of the Christian Journal, King Street, Toronto.”

Our circulation has reached a very respectable number already; but we anticipate for the next year, commencing in July, a large increase of Subscribers; and at that period, we trust, a general and energetic effort will be made by all our Ministers and Friends in their respective localities.

JOHN DAVISON, } Editors.
WILLIAM ROWE, }

OFFICE—Over the Golden Lion, 37 King St. East, Toronto.