The thirty-sixth Session of the Medical Faculty of the McGill University will be opened on Monday, 2nd November, 1868; with a general introductory Lecture at 11 A.M.; the regular Lectures will commence on Wednesday the 4th Nov. at the hours specified in the time table, and be continued during the six months following.

McGill University having been included among the Universities recognized by the Medical Council of Great Britain and Ireland, its degree has accordingly been registered by that Council, thereby conferring upon graduates of this University the same privileges as Physicians or Surgeons of Great Britain.

The class tickets for the various courses are accepted as qualifying candidates for examination before the Universities and Colleges of Great Britain and Ireland, and also before the Medical Boards of the Army and Navy.

To meet the circumstances of General Practitioners in British North America, where there is no division of the profession into Physicians and Surgeons exclusively, the degree awarded upon graduation is that of "Doctor of Medicine and Master in Surgery." This designation is also appropriate, from agreeing with the general
